JAPAN AND U. S. PERFECT NAVAL AGREEMENT

NOW IN HANDS OF GOVERNMENTS FOR APPROVAL

GIVE JAPAN 60 PER CENT OF AMERICAN BATTLESHIP STRENGTH

70 PER CENT OF HER HEAVY
CRUISER TONNAGE, EQUALITY IN SUBMARINES

By WEBB MILLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, March 15.—(U.P.)—Terms of an agreement between Japan and America, now in the hands of the two governments for approval, give Japan 60 per cent of the American battleship strength, 70 per cent of her heavy cruiser tonnage, and equality in submarines.

The agreement, worked out of a long series of inter-delegation conferences, would apply to the two navies until 1936, when the next conference is called.

Within the next six years, Japan is to be permitted to build her cruisers armed with 6-inch guns to a total of 108,000 tons, and the United States will agree not to lay down her last three cruisers of that class until 1933, 1934 and 1936 respectively. Since these ships could not be completed before the next conference, the agreement thus virtually assured the far eastern nation of a 70 per cent ratio in that classification.

It is reported that throughout the negotiations, which have been progressing more than a fortnight, the American delegation refused to concede the Japanese demand for right to replace her new 7,000-ton, 6-inch gun cruisers, and also declined to recede from their position that there should be no maximum placed in the tonnage displacement of 6-inch gun cruisers. Great Britain originally supported Japan's claims on this issue.

Concerning submarines, the agreement is said to provide that Japan will have 52,400 tons afloat in 1936, pledging herself neither to build nor replace outworn undersea boats. The United States, on the other hand, is permitted to replace submarines to a total of 60,000 tons.

While the reported agreement has brightened the chances of some accomplishment by the five-power conference, the Franco-Italian situation found the two nations still deadlocked over the naval parity issue, despite Foreign Minister Aristide Briand's attempts to persuade the Italians to present "minimum figures" on their naval requirements. Italy's only reply was reiteration of her demand for parity with France, regardless of figures.

SECRET CONVICT GROUP OF SLAYERS

MISSION IS TO KILL OFFICIALS NAMED ON ITS "BLACK-LIST"

Auburn, N. Y., March 15.—(U.P.)—A secret society whose mission is to kill certain officials named on its "black-list" has sprung up in turbulent Auburn prison since the Dec. 11 riot, according to reliable information today. The organization, replacing the now suspended Mutual Welfare League, is said to comprise some 100 long term criminals. Their "blacklist," it is said, includes the name of Warden John L. Hoffman. Hoffman said he knew of no such organization.

Principal Keeper John M. Beckwith, who was stabbed to death March 5, was reported listed. Incidentally, evidence against Anthony Mortello, a convict charged with the murder, will be considered here Monday by the Cayuga county grand jury.

Mortello, it was reported on good authority, drew the lot which directed him to kill Beckwith. It is said that Mortello, unwilling to talk at first, has made a statement to Dist. Atty. J. James J. Hosmer in connection with the stabbing. Hosmer, however, has declined to reveal the contents.

FAMILY QUARRELS BLAMED FOR SUICIDE

Hibbing, Minn., March 15.—(U.P.)—Family quarrels were blamed today by police for the suicide of Jerry Bruett, 44, railroad worker, after he stabbed his wife to death in the basement of the home. The couple were found last night. Police announced today they found a note by Bruett saying constant quarrels with his wife had caused him to kill her and then himself.

Ottawa, Ont., March 15.—(U.P.)—Passed unanimously at its second reading, the bill prohibiting export of liquor to the United States, championed by Premier Mackenzie King, today awaited final consideration by the house of commons before being sent to the senate.

The bill was passed after considerable debate last night. King warned the house he would not be responsible for the external affairs of the country if the measure failed to pass.

CHANNEL TUNNEL IS DECLARED EXPENSIVE HOLE IN THE GROUND

London, March 15.—(U.P.)—The proposed tunnel linking Britain and France under the English channel would be an "expensive hole in the ground" the London Times said editorially today, flaying the project favored in the majority report of the channel committee's economic council.

The council's report favored the project, declaring it would increase trade and would be no trouble to maintain.

It was estimated the tunnel for two-way traffic would cost about $25,000,000 in addition to more than $5,000,000 for an initial pilot tunnel.

100 POSSEMEN CLOSING IN ON

BANDIT TRIO

PURSUERS ARMED WITH TWO MACHINE GUNS AND LED BY BLOODHOUNDS

ROBBERS SHOT THEIR WAY TO
LIBERTY AFTER ROBBERING
MANTER, KAS, BANK

Jetmore, Kansas, March 15.—(U.P.)—Twenty-seven hours after they held up the Menter State Bank yesterday, the three bandits who killed an Eads, Colo., deputy sheriff in trying to escape, surrendered to a posse of 100 men about five miles southeast of Jetmore this afternoon.

Dogs picked up their trail southwest of the city and led the posse, headed by Sheriff Alderman of Lamar, Colo., to where the trio was hiding in the weeds. Although armed, the three gave up without any effort at battle.

Jetmore, Kan., March 15.—(U.P.)—Armed with two machine guns and led by bloodhounds, about 100 possemen were reported closing in today on a trio of bank bandits near here who yesterday shot their way to liberty near the Colorado line after robbing the Menter Bank of Menter, Kas.

The bandit car was abandoned here about 2 A. M. today when their car ran up a blind street.

Their abandoned car contained a number of pistols and rifles and sacks of silver looted from the bank.

Officers believed the men, tracked by the hounds, would be captured afoot in this town, or nearby.

No persons were permitted to leave the town after presence of the bandit car was noted.

Airplanes brought the hounds here from Hutchinson and from Dodge City.

Officers prepared for a possible gun battle as bloody as the one late yesterday when the gangsters blazed their way across southeastern Colorado, killing one peace officer and wounding three persons.

The bandit car sped into Jetmore this morning just as the armed men who had been guarding the roads had decided the killers were not coming this way, and were preparing to go home.

The driver sped the barricade across the road and took to the ditch to circle it. The guards withheld their fire fearing it might be officers pursuing the bandits. They followed it however, when the occupants failed to return their hail and saw the car dart up the blind street. Repeated calls bringing no answer from the automobile, the possemen riddled it with lead, from one end to the other. Their orders are to "take no chances and shoot to kill."

Contents of the car, rifles, pistols and sacks of silver were not touched as officers did not wish to spoil the scent of the bloodhounds, or to smudge finger prints.

Machine guns and additional possemen were rushed from Dodge City to aid in the search which began with the sunrise.

The car abandoned here is the third stolen by the bandits in their effort to get away.

Crowds observe Col. Lindbergh in glider flights

Carmel, Calif., March 15.—(U.P.)—The Prince of Wales has often set the style of society's garb for men but Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has set the style for society sports in America.

Hundreds of socially elite of the Pacific coast, visitors from the south and east have flocked to the wind swept crags of Monterey peninsula almost daily to watch Lindbergh attempt glider flights.

Today he plans another attempt to make a flight which may land him in the vicinity of Los Angeles if the air currents sustain his craft.

Amendment of Federal Corrupt Practice Act Recommended in Senate Sub-Committee Report

CHARGES OF SALE OF PUBLIC OFFICES PROBED

OVERWHELMING EVIDENCE OF
SUCH TRANSACTIONS REPORTED
IN SEVERAL STATES

GEORGIA SOUTH CAROLINA, MISSISSIPPI AND TEXAS ARE INVESTIGATED

Washington, March 15.—(U.P.)—Amendment of the federal corrupt practices act to include any person soliciting funds from a federal office holder or employee for political purposes, was recommended today in the report of the senate sub-committee which investigated charges of sale of public offices in Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi and Texas.

Overwhelming evidence of such transactions was reported in all the states investigated, but the committee said the practice has been eliminated almost entirely in Georgia.

The committee recommended that the practice of dispensing federal appointments "as shown by this report," be abolished at once, and that the justice department make a survey of the evidence collected and start proceedings against all persons who have violated the statute governing the barter and sale of public offices.

Perry W. Howard, negro, republican national committeeman from Mississippi, was charged in the report with barter and sale of appointments, although he has been exonerated twice in Mississippi courts.

The committee said the evidence of Howard's guilt was overwhelming. Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, in a supplementary report, deplored the fact that Howard was allowed to remain on the list of U. S. attorneys general over the protest of the committee for so long before his resignation was accepted.

FIRE THREATENS BLOCK IN DETROIT

Detroit, March 15.—(U.P.)—Fire threatened a block in the heart of downtown Detroit today as firemen battled to control a blaze that roared up through five floors of a building occupied by the American Upholstering company and the Globe Paper company.

One fireman was seriously hurt when a wall collapsed, and pinned him beneath an avalanche of brick. Both his legs were broken and he suffered internal injuries.

No estimates of damage were available. The cause of the fire was unknown.

Port au Prince, Haiti, March 15.—(U.P.)—President Hoover's investigating commission announced today that both President Louis Borno and the opposition to his regime had agreed to a settlement of the Haitian political dispute.

The agreement was on the basis of naming Eugene Roy, a neutral, as temporary president after the expiration of Borno's term. Roy would be pledged to call elections as soon as possible for a legislature, which would elect a new president.

ST. LOUIS W. C. T. U. IS NOT PLEASED WITH LITERARY DIGEST POLL

St. Louis, March 15.—(U.P.)—Calling the Literary Digest's national straw vote referendum on prohibition "unnecessary and inadequate," and "under suspicion of being merely another phase of the great wet campaign of 1930," the W. C. T. U. of St. Louis has forwarded a letter to the Literary Digest.

The letter demands to know whether the ballots are equally apportioned among men and women, and whether members of dry organizations are getting their share of ballots.

POLICE RUN UP SUSPECT ARRESTS TO 10,000 IN CHICAGO

11 MEMBERS OF TAYLOR COLTS,
NOTORIOUS SOUTH SIDE GANG,

"SCARFACE AL" CAPONE IS TO
MEET SAME FATE IF HE RE-
TURNS TO THE CITY

Chicago, March 15.—(U.P.)—Police seized 11 members of the Taylor Colts, notorious south side gang, last night, bringing to well over 10,000 the number of suspects arrested since the war on crime began, and simultaneously issued an ultimatum that "Scarface Al" Capone will meet the same fate if he returns here.

"Capone rates as any other hoodlum with the police department," declared Deputy Commissioner John Stege. "If he carries a pistol here, he will be thrown in jail."

United States Attorney George E. O. Johnson said he would greet Capone with a summons to answer a contempt citation, which the gang lord evaded last spring by feigning illness in his Miami, Fla., home.

Capone is due to be released from the Philadelphia jail next Monday and has said he may come back to Chicago at once.

Damage was estimated at $175,000. Several of the planes were owned by a mail line operating between Hadley field and Miami.

New Brunswick, N. J., March 15.—(U.P.)—Fire and a subsequent earthquake explosion destroyed 13 airplanes and a hangar at Hadley field today.

Damage was estimated at $175,000. Several of the planes were owned by a mail line operating between Hadley field and Miami.

HIGHWAY PROGRAM IN CHICAGO IS TO AID 33,000 MEN

$70,000,000 EXPENDITURES ARE
PLANNED IN CITY AND VICINITY

TEN MILLION DOLLARS A MONTH
TO BE SPENT FOR SEVEN MONTHS

Chicago, March 15.—(U.P.)—A seventy million dollar street and highway program that will employ 33,000 men in Chicago and the territory within 50 miles will begin as spring succeeds a drear winter of debt and unemployment, it was assured today with issuance of estimates on approved projects.

Sufficient money was announced as available for a monthly expenditure of $10,000,000 for the seven months of the building season.

In the city the roar of motor trucks, the thud of dumped gravel striking earth and the crunch of tamping started, with 28 street crews consisting of 450 men repairing broken pavements. Within a few days the sounds will be multiplied as similar work begins in a score of districts within the metropolitan area.

About 14,000 men will be employed shoveling dirt, dumping trucks, driving spikes and doing similar work. Some 19,000 others will be in gravel pits, cement plants, puddling works or machine shops.

The Chicago board of local improvements estimated its yearly average of $20,000,000 will be spent on paving and another $4,000,000 will go for street repairs.

Engineers and draftsmen have about completed plans for the $12,000,000 state road program and concrete will be poured as soon as weather permits.

State highway departments plan to spend $937,500,455 for construction and maintenance of highways. About $663,667,000 will be spent on local roads and bridges.

Highway officials of 45 states estimated 32,532 miles of roads would be improved by them. This is an increase of 3,126 miles over 1929. Three states failed to report their contemplated mileage for 1930.

"States of greatest population and industrialization, in which unemployment naturally is the greatest, show the highest contemplated expenditures," the bureau said, grouping states by districts.

The states of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania plan to spend $374,835,310 on improvement of state and local roads while Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin plan to spend $303,696,000.

"Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas rank third in their contemplated expenditure of $236,461,727."

FRANCE'S PRETTIEST PAIR OF LEGS TO GO TO BROADWAY

Paris, March 15.—(U.P.)—France's prettiest pair of legs is abandoning the boulevards for Broadway.

There was real consternation on the French stage when the rumors of Mistinguette's departure for America were confirmed. The talkies are to be blamed for that, together with the dollars.

Now that "Miss" is going to follow Maurice Chevalier to Broadway and Hollywood, she is the topic of all conversations and more than one midnights dream of the fantastic was the modest little Jeanne Bourgeois, who worked as flower girl, became the world famous Mistinguette.

ROAD BUILDING TO CURE ILLS OF UNEMPLOYMENT

OVER BILLION DOLLARS TO BE
SPENT IN VARIOUS STATES
AND COUNTIES

INCREASE OF QUARTER BILLION
WORTH OF PROJECTS OVER
YEAR OF 1929

Washington, March 15.—(U.P.)—Cooperating with President Hoover in his business expansion program, states and counties plan to spend $1,601,167,455 in road building during the current year, an increase of $250,000,000 over 1929, the U. S. bureau of public roads reported today.

This huge expenditure of public funds will give work to thousands of men, both on the roads and in industries preparing machinery and various surfacing materials, officials of the department said.

JUDICIARY BODY PROBING IN HOUSE IN DRY MAJORITY

AT WEEK-END RECESS, BOTH
SIDES TAKE STOCK OF AC-
COMPLISHMENTS

DRYS PREPARE TO PRESENT
WHAT MAY BE THEIR FINAL
TESTIMONY

By PAUL R. MALLON

Washington, March 15.—Both wets and drys are sure they have proved their cases in the big prohibition trial before the preponderantly dry house judiciary committee.

As the customary week-end recess was in order today, both sides took stock of their accomplishments and the drys prepared to present what may be their final testimony Wednesday and Thursday.

Admittedly the trial has been the most extensive and elaborate discussion of the prohibition issue in the ten-year history of the dry law. Witnesses have been called from all sections of the country and all walks of life, from millionaires to reformed drunkards from Bowery missions.

The expense has been considerable but how great will not be known until the hearings are concluded, if then. It has been borne for the wets by the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment and for the drys by the various affiliated dry organizations here and throughout the country.

Some funds may be contributed by the Anti-Saloon League and the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, although neither of these organizations yet have furnished any witnesses for the dry case.

The dry case has been handled by Mrs. Lena Tost, republican national committeewoman from Pennsylvania, although the dry leaders gather in conclave every night to plan their case for the following day.

A brief summary of the accomplishments of each side follows:

Wets
Bringing into active leadership such outstanding industrialists as W. W. Atterbury, president, Pennsylvania railroad; Pierce Dupont, of General Motors; and Grayson M. P. Murphy of the National City Bank.

Development of sentiment among their own ranks to work for straight out appeal where heretofore most have been working for modification.

Production of eminent clergymen, physicians, economists and leading citizens who described existing conditions as worse than bad.

Laying groundwork for what they plan to be an educational campaign regarding the Canadian and Swedish liquor systems.

Drys
The matching of industrialist for industrialist with the wets, producing such eminent supporters as Henry Ford, Thomas Edison, J. C. Penney and others.

Denial of the wet contention that there is more drinking among the young by producing polls of the Christian Endeavor, statements from college authorities.

A striking group of witnesses from missions of crowded eastern slums, testifying prohibition has cleaned out their districts.

Production of eminent economists, educators, clergymen and a group purporting to represent 12,000,000 women to deny all the wet contentions.

Wisconsin alarmed over Texas action

Beloit, Wis., March 15.—(U.P.)—Alarmed at the threatened boycott of Wisconsin industries by Texas residents, Beloit manufacturers have wired Gov. Kohler at Uesappa Island, Florida, to take steps to "bring about a renewal of business relations with southern states."

The message told the governor that a boycott of Wisconsin goods would mean an annual loss of $3,000,000 to Beloit industries alone and approximately $40,000,000 throughout the state.

Government rests in Doheny trial

Washington, March 15.—(U.P.)—The government rested its case today in the bribery trial of Edward L. Doheny. Brief testimony from three witnesses and the introduction of various letters and documents and the Elk Hills naval reserve lease which the government contends was obtained through the bribery of Albert B. Fall, completed the government's case.

First death from baffling paralysis

Nashville, Tenn., March 15.—(U.P.)—The first death from the baffling partial paralysis malady that has stricken more than 200 persons in three southern states, was reported today. James S. Dillard, 24, died after being suddenly taken ill.

French Vineyards Ruined by Flood

The partly submerged village of Languedoc during the recent disastrous flood which resulted from the collapse of the great Tarn River dam and swept over the Toulouse region, taking a toll of 172 lives and causing great property damage.

The heart of France's richest vineyard district was completely wiped out by the flood waters, which covered thousands of acres and washed away the foundations of homes.

London, March 15.—Terms of an agreement between Japan and America, now in the hands of the two governments for approval, give Japan 60 per cent of the American battleship strength, 70 per cent of her heavy cruiser tonnage, and equality in submarines, it was learned today from American sources.

The agreement, worked out of a long series of inter-delegation conferences, would apply to the two navies until 1936, when the next conference is called.

Jetmore, Kansas, March 15.—(U.P.)—Twenty-seven hours after they held up the Manner State Bank yesterday, the three bandits who killed an Eads, Colo., deputy sheriff in trying to escape, surrendered to a posse of 100 men about five miles southeast of Jetmore this afternoon.

Dogs picked up their trail southwest of the city and led the posse headed by Sheriff Alderman of Lamar, Colo., to where the trio was hiding in the weeds. Although armed, the three gave up without any effort at battle.

Armed with two machine guns and led by bloodhounds, about 100 possemen were reported closing in today on a trio of bank bandits near here who yesterday shot their way to liberty near the Colorado line after robbing the Manner Bank of Manner, Kan.

The bandit car was abandoned here about 2 A. M. today when their car ran up a blind street.

Their abandoned car contained a number of pistols and rifles and sacks of silver looted from the bank.

Officers believed the men, tracked by the hounds, would be captured afoot in this town, or nearby.

Repeated calls bringing no answer from the automobile, the possemen riddled it with lead, from one end to the other. Their orders are to "take no chances and shoot to kill."

Contents of the car, rifles, pistols and sacks of silver were not touched as officers did not wish to spoil the scent of the bloodhounds, or to smudge finger prints.

Machine guns and additional possemen were rushed from Dodge City to aid in the search which began with the sunrise.

The car abandoned here is the third stolen by the bandits in their effort to get away.

CROWDS OBSERVE COL. LINDBERGH IN GLIDER FLIGHTS

Carmel, Calif., March 15.—(U.P.)—The Prince of Wales has often set the style of society's garb for men but Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has set the style for society sports in America.

Hundreds of socially elite of the Pacific coast, visitors from the south and east have flocked to the wind swept crags of Monterey peninsula almost daily to watch Lindbergh attempt glider flights.

Today he plans another attempt to make a flight which may land him in the vicinity of Los Angeles if the air currents sustain his craft.

Amendment of Federal Corrupt Practice Act Recommended in Senate Sub-Committee Report

CHARGES OF SALE OF PUBLIC OFFICES PROBED

OVERWHELMING EVIDENCE OF
SUCH TRANSACTIONS REPORTED
IN SEVERAL STATES

GEORGIA SOUTH CAROLINA, MISSISSIPPI AND TEXAS ARE INVESTIGATED

Washington, March 15.—(U.P.)—Amendment of the federal corrupt practices act to include any person soliciting funds from a federal office holder or employee for political purposes, was recommended today in the report of the senate sub-committee which investigated charges of sale of public offices in Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi and Texas.

Overwhelming evidence of such transactions was reported in all the states investigated, but the committee said the practice has been eliminated almost entirely in Georgia.

The committee recommended that the practice of dispensing federal appointments "as shown by this report," be abolished at once, and that the justice department make a survey of the evidence collected and start proceedings against all persons who have violated the statute governing the barter and sale of public offices.

Perry W. Howard, negro, republican national committeeman from Mississippi, was charged in the report with barter and sale of appointments, although he has been exonerated twice in Mississippi courts.

The committee said the evidence of Howard's guilt was overwhelming. Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, in a supplementary report, deplored the fact that Howard was allowed to remain on the list of U. S. attorneys general over the protest of the committee for so long before his resignation was accepted.

FIRE THREATENS BLOCK IN DETROIT

Detroit, March 15.—(U.P.)—Fire threatened a block in the heart of downtown Detroit today as firemen battled to control a blaze that roared up through five floors of a building occupied by the American Upholstering company and the Globe Paper company.

One fireman was seriously hurt when a wall collapsed, and pinned him beneath an avalanche of brick. Both his legs were broken and he suffered internal injuries.

No estimates of damage were available. The cause of the fire was unknown.

ST. LOUIS W. C. T. U. IS NOT PLEASED WITH LITERARY DIGEST POLL

St. Louis, March 15.—(U.P.)—Calling the Literary Digest's national straw vote referendum on prohibition "unnecessary and inadequate," and "under suspicion of being merely another phase of the great wet campaign of 1930," the W. C. T. U. of St. Louis has forwarded a letter to the Literary Digest.

The letter demands to know whether the ballots are equally apportioned among men and women, and whether members of dry organizations are getting their share of ballots.

POLICE RUN UP SUSPECT ARRESTS TO 10,000 IN CHICAGO

11 MEMBERS OF TAYLOR COLTS,
NOTORIOUS SOUTH SIDE GANG,
ARE IN CUSTODY

"SCARFACE AL" CAPONE IS TO
MEET SAME FATE IF HE RE-
TURNS TO THE CITY

Chicago, March 15.—(U.P.)—Police seized 11 members of the Taylor Colts, notorious south side gang, last night, bringing to well over 10,000 the number of suspects arrested since the war on crime began, and simultaneously issued an ultimatum that "Scarface Al" Capone will meet the same fate if he returns here.

"Capone rates as any other hoodlum with the police department," declared Deputy Commissioner John Stege. "If he carries a pistol here, he will be thrown in jail."

United States Attorney George E. O. Johnson said he would greet Capone with a summons to answer a contempt citation, which the gang lord evaded last spring by feigning illness in his Miami, Fla., home.

Capone is due to be released from the Philadelphia jail next Monday and has said he may come back to Chicago at once.

HAITIAN POLITICAL DISPUTE IS VERY NEAR SETTLEMENT

Port au Prince, Haiti, March 15.—(U.P.)—President Hoover's investigating commission announced today that both President Louis Borno and the opposition to his regime had agreed to a settlement of the Haitian political dispute.

The agreement was on the basis of naming Eugene Roy, a neutral, as temporary president after the expiration of Borno's term. Roy would be pledged to call elections as soon as possible for a legislature, which would elect a new president.

HIGHWAY PROGRAM IN CHICAGO IS TO AID 33,000 MEN

$70,000,000 EXPENDITURES ARE
PLANNED IN CITY AND
VICINITY

TEN MILLION DOLLARS A MONTH
TO BE SPENT FOR SEVEN MONTHS

Chicago, March 15.—(U.P.)—A seventy million dollar street and highway program that will employ 33,000 men in Chicago and the territory within 50 miles will begin as spring succeeds a drear winter of debt and unemployment, it was assured today with issuance of estimates on approved projects.

Sufficient money was announced as available for a monthly expenditure of $10,000,000 for the seven months of the building season.

In the city the roar of motor trucks, the thud of dumped gravel striking earth and the crunch of tamping started, with 28 street crews consisting of 450 men repairing broken pavements. Within a few days the sounds will be multiplied as similar work begins in a score of districts within the metropolitan area.

About 14,000 men will be employed shoveling dirt, dumping trucks, driving spikes and doing similar work. Some 19,000 others will be in gravel pits, cement plants, puddling works or machine shops.

The Chicago board of local improvements estimated its yearly average of $20,000,000 will be spent on paving and another $4,000,000 will go for street repairs.

Engineers and draftsmen have about completed plans for the $12,000,000 state road program and concrete will be poured as soon as weather permits.

FIRE AND EXPLOSION DESTROY 13 AIRPLANES

New Brunswick, N. J., March 15.—(U.P.)—Fire and a subsequent earth-shaking explosion destroyed 13 airplanes and a hangar at Hadley field today.

Damage was estimated at $175,000. Several of the planes were owned by a mail line operating between Hadley field and Miami.

NOT A NICKEL IN FRAT HOUSE TO CALL FIRE DEPT.

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 15.—(U.P.)—When fire broke out in the University of Michigan Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity house damage of $1,000 resulted because no one had a nickel to insert in the pay telephone for a fire department call. A freshman sent to a frat house across the street to use a telephone borrowed a nickel and returned to call the firemen.

FRANCE'S PRETTIEST PAIR OF LEGS TO GO TO BROADWAY

Paris, March 15.—(U.P.)—France's prettiest pair of legs is abandoning the boulevards for Broadway. There was real consternation on the French stage when the rumors of Mistinguette's departure for America were confirmed. The talkies are to be blamed for that, together with the dollars.

Now that "Miss" is going to follow Maurice Chevalier to Broadway and Hollywood, she is the topic of all conversations and more than one mid-nite dream of the fantastic was the modest little Jeanne Bourgeois, who worked as flower girl, became the world famous Mistinguette.

ROAD BUILDING TO CURE ILLS OF UNEMPLOYMENT

OVER BILLION DOLLARS TO BE
SPENT IN VARIOUS STATES
AND COUNTIES

INCREASE OF QUARTER BILLION
WORTH OF PROJECTS OVER
YEAR OF 1929

Washington, March 15.—(U.P.)—Cooperating with President Hoover in his business expansion program, states and counties plan to spend $1,801,167,455 in road building during the current year, an increase of $250,000,000 over 1929, the U. S. bureau of public roads reported today.

This huge expenditure of public funds will give work to thousands of men, both on the roads and in industries preparing machinery and various surfacing materials, officials of the department said.

State highway departments plan to spend $937,500,455 for construction and maintenance of highways. About $663,667,000 will be spent on local roads and bridges.

Highway officials of 45 states estimated 32,532 miles of roads would be improved by them. This is an increase of 3,126 miles over 1929. Three states failed to report their contemplated mileage for 1930.

"States of greatest population and industrialization, in which unemployment naturally is the greatest, show the highest contemplated expenditures," the bureau said, grouping states by districts.

The states of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania plan to spend $374,835,310 on improvement of state and local roads while Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin plan to spend $303,696,000.

"Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas rank third in their contemplated expenditure of $236,461,727."

HIGH SCHOOL CONTROVERSY IN MONTEVIDEO

PRETTY ENGLISH TEACHER IS CHARGED WITH SMOKING
WITH GIRLS OF CLASS

65 STUDENTS STAGE A DEMONSTRATION FOR REINSTATEMENT OF TEACHER

Montevideo, Minn., March 15.—(U.P.)—The high school controversy interrupted by a timely Saturday, Miss Lillian Pederson, pretty English teacher, today waited serenely for the school board to prove that she smoked cigarettes with the girls of her class.

The students—both boys and girls—indicated it made little difference to them if Miss Pederson did smoke. They also said they might not go back to school if a dismissal of Miss Pederson is not withdrawn.

O. B. Wilson, president of the school board, said Miss Pederson's dismissal will be reconsidered at a meeting of the board Monday. He said he believed all of the students will return to their classes, at least until a final decision is made.

While C. A. Pederson, superintendent, was attending a regional basketball tournament at St. Cloud yesterday afternoon, 65 students failed to attend classes and staged a demonstration for Miss Pederson's reinstatement. The students also signed a petition asking the return of four students who were expelled for alleged drinking at a basketball game a week ago.

The students, parents and school board members were much perturbed over the affair; Miss Pederson refused to get in the least excited.

JUDICIARY BODY PROBING IN HOUSE IN DRY MAJORITY

AT WEEK-END RECESS, BOTH
SIDES TAKE STOCK OF AC-
COMPLISHMENTS

DRYS PREPARE TO PRESENT
WHAT MAY BE THEIR FINAL
TESTIMONY

By PAUL R. MALLON
Washington, March 15.—Both wets and drys are sure they have proved their cases in the big prohibition trial before the preponderantly dry house judiciary committee.

As the customary week-end recess was in order today, both sides took stock of their accomplishments and the drys prepared to present what may be their final testimony Wednesday and Thursday.

Admittedly the trial has been the most extensive and elaborate discussion of the prohibition issue in the ten-year history of the dry law. Witnesses have been called from all sections of the country and all walks of life, from millionaires to reformed drunks from Bowery missions.

The expense has been considerable but how great will not be known until the hearings are concluded, if then. It has been borne for the wets by the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment and for the drys by the various affiliated dry organizations here and throughout the country. Some funds may be contributed by the Anti-Saloon League and the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, although neither of these organizations yet have furnished any witnesses for the dry case.

The dry case has been handled by Mrs. Lena Toast, republican national committeewoman from Pennsylvania, although the dry leaders gather in conclave every night to plan their case for the following day.

A brief summary of the accomplishments of each side follows:

Wets
Bringing into active leadership such outstanding industrialists as W. W. Atterbury, president, Pennsylvania railroad; Pierce Dupont, of General Motors; and Grayson M. P. Murphy of the National City Bank.

Development of sentiment among their own ranks to work for straight out repeal where heretofore might have been working for modification. Production of eminent clergymen, physicians, economists and leading citizens who described existing conditions as worse than bad.

Laying groundwork for what they plan to be an educational campaign regarding the Canadian and Swedish liquor systems.

Drys
The matching of industrialist for industrialist with the wets, producing such eminent supporters as Henry Ford, Thomas Edison, J. C. Penney and others.

Denial of the wet contention that there is more drinking among the young by producing polls of the Christian Endeavor, statements from college authorities.

A striking group of witnesses from missions of crowded eastern slums, testifying prohibition has cleaned out their districts.

Production of eminent economists, educators, clergymen and a group purporting to represent 12,000 women to deny all the wet contentions.

WISCONSIN ALARMED OVER TEXAS ACTION

Beloit, Wis., March 15.—(U.P.)—Alarmed at the threatened boycott of Wisconsin industries by Texas residents, Beloit manufacturers have wired Gov. Kohler at Uesepa Island, Florida, to take steps to "bring about a renewal of business relations with southern states."

The message told the governor that a boycott of Wisconsin goods would mean an annual loss of $3,000,000 to Beloit industries alone and approximately $40,000,000 throughout the state.

GOVERNMENT RESTS IN DOHENY TRIAL

Washington, March 15.—(U.P.)—The government rested its case today in the bribery trial of Edward L. Doheny. Brief testimony from three witnesses and the introduction of various letters and documents and the Elk Hills naval reserve lease which the government contends was obtained through the bribery of Albert B. Fall, completed the government's case.

FIRST DEATH FROM BAFFLING PARALYSIS

Nashville, Tenn., March 15.—(U.P.)—The first death from the baffling partial paralysis malady that has stricken more than 200 persons in three southern states, was reported today. James S. Dillard, 24, died after being suddenly taken ill.

French Vineyards Ruined by Flood

The partly submerged village of Languedoc during the recent disastrous flood which resulted from the collapse of the great Tarn River dam and swept over the Toulouse region, taking a toll of 172 lives and causing great property damage.

The heart of France's richest vineyard district was completely wiped out by the flood waters, which covered thousands of acres and washed away the foundations of homes.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

March 15, 1905

Little three and a half year old G. Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Warner died this morning from sulphur poisoning. The child yesterday morning was playing with some matches and put some of them in his mouth. The remains will be taken to Fort Ripley tomorrow for burial.

It is understood that A. C. White who formerly coached the St. Olaf college team will be playing manager for the St. Cloud-Brainerd baseball team. Coach Anderson, who coached the Hamline university team, is also mentioned.

H. F. Michael spoke at the shop meeting today and a good number of men gathered to hear him.

The first regular meeting of the Commercial club of Brainerd was held last night in Elks hall and there was a good representation of the business men. Many matters of importance came up for consideration. W. H. Cleary who was appointed chairman of the committee on wholesale and retail trade, has looked into the potato industry. It was the consensus of opinion of those present last evening that no greater help could be extended this city and county than take this matter up with the farmers and induce them to engage in potato raising on a larger scale. Mayor Con O'Brien spoke regarding the new creamery to be erected here. Patronizing home industry was also discussed and special mention made of the flour mill industry and all business men were urged to push the local flour mill. Mayor O'Brien stated he thought there should be a meeting in the city and a dinner served to all the farmers throughout the county, the meeting to be on the order of a farmers institute. P. B. Nettleton took up the matter of advertising lands in this locality and this was referred to the public improvements committee. Several bills were also taken up on which a general discussion was held. Manager M. J. Reilly reported on the progress made in baseball matters which report was enthusiastically received.

Sunday Evening Forum

Continued interest is shown at the Sunday evening Forum at the Methodist church. Tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock the following questions will be discussed: "What is a Christian?" "Is the United States a Christian Nation?" "Can a non-Church Member be a Christian?" A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested.

'FOLLOWERS OF GLEAM' CONTINUE GOOD DEEDS

The "Followers of the Gleam" met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. P. Slipp, the meeting being in charge of the president, Kathryn Carmichael.

During the business session Secretary Doris Geist was authorized to send from the treasury a donation to "The American Scripture Gift Mission" which mission cares for the spiritual needs of those in neglected rural districts in the United States.

Vice President Viola McKay read a communication from the "American Mission to Lepers" in which the "Followers of the Gleam" were thanked for the offering sent the lepers at Christmas.

A letter was also received from Miss Gertrude Kellogg, nurse at the Congregational hospital at Fenchow, China, concerning the two boxes sent her October 1929.

Miss Kellogg in her reply as of December 1929 writes in part as follows: "The two lovely boxes are here all safely and they are the best ever from Brainerd."

"Thank you a thousand times. The 'Followers of the Gleam' have made Christmas possible for our patients."

"There are a number of children here for treatment and they are so dear. One little boy, two years old, came in blind. Within a month his sight was restored. I never loved a Chinese child so much. His intelligence is above the average."

During the study hour, the chosen subject was "When Knighthood Was In Flower," Chapter IV of "Going to Jerusalem."

The study as of overwhelming devotion to the cause of Jesus Christ, "the names of Frances of Assisi and Raymon Lull live on and on."

The social hour followed with the cutting out of pictures for future mission work and the serving of refreshments by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. L. Giest. Three visitors were present.

Birthday Party for Two

A birthday party was held yesterday afternoon on Mrs. D. T. Lawrence and her sister, Miss Ida Rosenberg at their home, 510 South Sixth street, to help them celebrate the joint anniversary of their birthdays.

About 30 of their friends and members of the Bethlehem Lutheran church gathered for the afternoon which was spent socially. A short program was also given. Mrs. Louis Johnson giving a few selections on the violin and piano.

The ladies were presented with a purse by their friends, Mrs. Christina Peterson making the presentation speech, and Miss Rosenberg responding. They were also remembered by many of their out of town friends.

A birthday lunch was served after which the guests departed wishing the ladies many happy returns of the day.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

March 15, 1905

Little three and a half year old G. Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Warner died this morning from sulphuric poisoning. The child yesterday morning was playing with some matches and put some of them in his mouth. The remains will be taken to Fort Ripley tomorrow for burial.

It is understood that A. C. White who formerly coached the St. Olaf college team will be playing manager for the St. Cloud-Brainerd baseball team. Coach Anderson, who coached the Hamline university team, is also mentioned.

H. F. Michael spoke at the shop meeting today and a good number of men gathered to hear him.

The first regular meeting of the Commercial club of Brainerd was held last night in Elks hall and there was a good representation of the business men there being nearly a hundred present. Many matters of importance came up for consideration. W. H. Cleary who was appointed chairman of the committee on wholesale and retail trade, has looked into the potato industry. It was the consensus of opinion of those present last evening that no greater help could be extended this city and county than take this matter up with the farmers and induce them to engage in potato raising on a larger scale. Mayor Con O'Brien spoke regarding the new creamery to be erected here. Patronizing home industry was also discussed and special mention made of the flour mill industry and all business men were urged to push the local flour mill. Mayor O'Brien stated he thought there should be a meeting in the city and a dinner served to all the farmers throughout the county, the meeting to be on the order of a farmers institute. P. E. Nettleton took up the matter of advertising lands in this locality and this was referred to the public improvements committee. Several bills were also taken up on which a general discussion was held. Manager M. J. Reilly reported on the progress made in baseball matters which report was enthusiastically received.

Sunday Evening Forum

Continued interest is shown at the Sunday evening Forum at the Methodist church. Tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock the following questions will be discussed: "What is a Christian?" "Is the United States a Christian Nation?" "Can a non-Church Member be a Christian?" A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested.

'FOLLOWERS OF GLEAM' CONTINUE GOOD DEEDS

The "Followers of the Gleam" met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. P. Slipp, the meeting being in charge of the president, Kathryn Carmichael.

During the business session Secretary Doris Geist was authorized to send from the treasury a donation to "The American Scripture Gift Mission" which mission cares for the spiritual needs of those in neglected rural districts in the United States.

Vice President Viola McKay read a communication from the "American Mission to Lepers" in which the "Followers of the Gleam" were thanked for the offering sent the lepers at Christmas.

A letter was also received from Miss Gertrude Kellogg, nurse at the Congregational hospital at Fenchow, China, concerning the two boxes sent her October 1929.

Miss Kellogg in her reply as of December 1929 writes in part as follows: "The two lovely boxes are here all safely and they are the best ever from Brainerd."

"Thank you a thousand times. The 'Followers of the Gleam' have made Christmas possible for our patients."

"There are a number of children here for treatment and they are so dear. One little boy, two years old, came in blind. Within a month his sight was restored. I never loved a Chinese child so much. His intelligence is above the average."

During the study hour, the chosen subject was "When Knighthood Was in Flower," Chapter IV of "Going to Jerusalem."

Of the knights referred to in the study as of overwhelming devotion to the cause of Jesus Christ, "the names of Frances of Assisi and Raymond Lull live on and on."

The social hour followed with the cutting out of pictures for future mission work and the serving of refreshments by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. L. Geist. Three visitors were present.

Birthday Party for Two

A birthday party was held yesterday afternoon at Mrs. D. T. Lawrence and her sister, Miss Ida Rosenberg at their home, 510 South Sixth street, to help them celebrate the joint anniversary of their birthdays.

About 30 of their friends and members of the Bethlehem Lutheran church gathered for the afternoon which was spent socially. A short program was also given. Mrs. Louis Johnson giving a few selections on the violin and piano.

The ladies were presented with a purse by their friends, Mrs. Christina Peterson making the presentation speech, and Miss Rosenberg responding. They were also remembered by many of their out of town friends.

A birthday lunch was served after which the guests departed wishing the ladies many happy returns of the day.

The Lord's Providence

Matthew 6:31, 32, 33, 34. Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32. (For all these things do the Gentiles see:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. 33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. 34. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Prayer:

The birds, without barns or store-houses, are fed;
From them let us learn to trust for our bread:
His saints what is fitting shall ne'er be denied,

Railway Workers

At times there comes to the thoughtful traveler a disturbing realization of the immense labor that planted the rock-sure roadbed over which his train is traveling. These railway workers keep in repair the foundation of our speedy transportation. Each hard day's work done by some obscure laborer lightens the labor of many others.

SERVICES in the CHURCHES

The Lord's Providence

Matthew 6:31, 32, 33, 34. Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32. (For after all these things do the Gentiles see:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. 33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. 34. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Prayer:
The birds, without barns or storehouse, are fed;
From them let us learn to trust for our bread:
His saints what is fitting shall ne'er be denied,
So long as 'tis written, "The Lord will provide."

Abuse of Discretion

THE jail sentence imposed by Common Pleas Judge Walther of Cleveland upon the editor and chief editorial writer of the Press of that city for criticising his action in enjoining the sheriff from interference with betting at a horse race track has been reversed by the Cuyahoga county court of appeals and with an added rebuke to the jurist, says the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. Not only was it emphasized that freedom of speech and a free press, subject to the laws of slander and libel, are a paramount issue, but it was specified that the sentencing judge had abused his discretion in sitting in a case in which he himself was involved. He should have referred it to an associate and have given his statement as a witness rather than as a judge from the bench.

The injunction that called forth the criticism by the newspaper was itself held by the reviewing court as of such a nature that not even the person violating it could have been found guilty of contempt. The judgment passed upon the editors was declared manifestly against the weight of evidence and contrary to law and the penalty meted out (thirty days in jail and a fine of $500 each) was in excess of that allowed by statute. The reversal opinion continued:

Because a man gets on the bench it does not necessarily mean that he has changed his temperament or his liability to get excited, and if he could set himself above the rest of mankind and sit in judgment on grievances in which he is the injured party, we would establish a dangerous precedent. It is better for a judge to be ruffled and agitated than to close the mouth of the speaker to the public.

That sums up the principle of both common sense and fairness in such cases. It would be directly contrary to sound public policy to make the acts of any public official immune from proper criticism. It is repugnant to every conception of a fair trial to let the person who considers himself aggrieved act in the triple capacity of prosecutor, jury and judge. The true security for the dignity of the court lies in being dignified and just.

To Survey Post-Glacial History of Mississippi

A UNIVERSITY of Minnesota botany professor is to use a plane to study the sand dunes along the Mississippi river from the Twin Cities to Brainerd. Extended mention of this novel method of exploration is accorded in "The Minnesota Daily" as published at the University of Minnesota.

Using an airplane as a means of transportation and for observation purposes, William S. Cooper, professor of botany, will make several flights over Minnesota during April to extend his study of ancient sand dunes and their vegetation. These trips are made possible because of a grant from the Elizabeth Thompson science fund received by Professor Cooper last week.

In his previous work Professor Cooper has made a thorough survey of the regions by motor car. He has made analyses of about 300 soil samples and has observed and photographed portions of the district from the air.

Post-glacial history of the Mississippi valley from the Twin Cities to Brainerd has revealed that about 20,000 years ago, while the glacial ice was melting away, great rivers flowed from it and deposited enormous quantities of sand, giving rise to extensive sandy plains.

As the surface of the plains dried out, wind blew the material into dunes, some of which reached a height of 80 to 100 feet. Low plants, and later forests, growing on the dunes have been preserved ever since in their original forms.

Arctic plants were the first to become established after the ice had melted away, according to Professor Cooper. As the ice kept retreating and the climate became warmer, pine and spruce took root. Today these are being driven out by oaks and other hardwoods.

Around Brainerd pines still predominate, but in Anoka county oaks are in control with only a few pines scattered through the timber regions. With the aid of the grant from the Elizabeth Thompson science fund, Professor Cooper expects to complete his field work upon this problem during the coming summer.

The professor's findings will no doubt be published in a university pamphlet and a copy should be gained by the Crow Wing County Historical society to be placed among its archives.

Bemidji Seeks State Institution

BEMIDJI, which was one of the last cities of the state to gain a normal school and which is also profiting by the establishment of state game refuges in the north country, is now seeking another proposed state institution, namely the erection of a branch state penitentiary.

Brainerd up to date has not housed a single state institution. At the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce notice was taken of the proposed extension of prison or reformatory institutions of the state and a committee headed by President C. A. Ryan of the Chamber of Commerce will enter the lists as an active bidder.

There is a possibility that the necessary appropriation will be granted to the state board of control at the next session of the legislature. It is reported that the state board of control is going to make a decided effort to secure an appropriation for a new penitentiary, which will relieve congested conditions now existing at both the state penitentiary at Stillwater and the St. Cloud reformatory.

Advancing the Barber Craft

P. J. MCGILL, secretary of the State Barber's Board, familiarly known to all his friends here as Pat, was in town and was remarking about the advancement in the barber business.

Arrangements have been made, said Mr. McGill, for University of Minnesota extension courses on bacteriology and hygiene, which, including laboratory work, will extend over a period of 20 lessons.

Any complaints against the craft are investigated and where necessary, prosecutions follow. "Insanitary practices alleged in certain big city shops were investigated and where evidence warranted it, prosecutions in the courts followed.

The general standard of the barber business is one of constant improvement, looking to the comfort and convenience of patrons and coupled with all necessary observance of the best rules in sanitation, scalp and facial treatments, etc.

Bereaved in Buffalo Tragedy

Henri Marchand, well-known artist, and his daughter, with the dog which watched over the body of Mrs. Marchand after the latter had been beaten to death with a hammer. "Princess Lila" Jimerson, said to be the last of the Indian princesses, and an aged squaw, Nancy Bowen, accuse each other of the crime. The Indian girl is said to have been enamored of the white man, to whom she has written a pleading letter from her jail cell asking for his help. (International Newsreel)

Again Soars to Record

Elinor Smith, diminutive flyer from Freeport, L. I., being welcomed back to earth by her mother after the aviatrix had shattered the women's altitude record by ascending about 30,000 feet in an hour and a half. The special barograph sealed in the plane before the take-off was delivered immediately to an official observer for the National Aeronautic Association and is to be examined before the record can be accepted officially. Abuse of Discretion

THE jail sentence imposed by Common Pleas Judge Walther of Cleveland upon the editor and chief editorial writer of the Press of that city for criticising his action in enjoining the sheriff from interference with betting at a horse race track has been reversed by the Cuyahoga county court of appeals and with an added rebuke to the jurist, says the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. Not only was it emphasized that freedom of speech and a free press, subject to the laws of slander and libel, are a paramount issue, but it was specified that the sentencing judge had abused his discretion in sitting in a case in which he himself was involved. He should have referred it to an associate and have given his statement as a witness rather than as a judge from the bench.

The injunction that called forth the criticism by the newspaper was itself held by the reviewing court as of such a nature that not even the person violating it could have been found guilty of contempt. The judgment passed upon the editors was declared manifestly against the weight of evidence and contrary to law and the penalty meted out (thirty days in jail and a fine of $500 each) was in excess of that allowed by statute. The reversal opinion continued:

Because a man gets on the bench it does not necessarily mean that he has changed his temperament or his liability to get excited, and if he could set himself above the rest of mankind and sit in judgment on grievances in which he is the injured party, we would establish a dangerous precedent. It is better for a judge to be ruffled and agitated than to close the mouth of the speaker to the public.

That sums up the principle of both common sense and fairness in such cases. It would be directly contrary to sound public policy to make the acts of any public official immune from proper criticism. It is repugnant to every conception of a fair trial to let the person who considers himself aggrieved act in the triple capacity of prosecutor, jury and judge. The true security for the dignity of the court lies in being dignified and just.

To Survey Post-Glacial History of Mississippi

A UNIVERSITY of Minnesota botany professor is to use a plane to study the sand dunes along the Mississippi river from the Twin Cities to Brainerd. Extended mention of this novel method of exploration is accorded in "The Minnesota Daily" as published at the University of Minnesota.

Using an airplane as a means of transportation and for observation purposes, William S. Cooper, professor of botany, will make several flights over Minnesota during April to extend his study of ancient sand dunes and their vegetation. These trips are made possible because of a grant from the Elizabeth Thompson science fund received by Professor Cooper last week.

In his previous work Professor Cooper has made a thorough survey of the regions by motor car. He has made analyses of about 300 soil samples and has observed and photographed portions of the district from the air.

Post-glacial history of the Mississippi valley from the Twin Cities to Brainerd has revealed that about 20,000 years ago, while the glacial ice was melting away, great rivers flowed from it and deposited enormous quantities of sand, giving rise to extensive sandy plains.

As the surface of the plains dried out, wind blew the material into dunes, some of which reached a height of 80 to 100 feet. Low plants, and later forests, growing on the dunes have been preserved ever since in their original forms.

Arctic plants were the first to become established after the ice had melted away, according to Professor Cooper. As the ice kept retreating and the climate became warmer, pine and spruce took root. Today these are being driven out by oaks and other hardwoods.

Around Brainerd pines still predominate, but in Anoka county oaks are in control with only a few pines scattered through the timber regions. With the aid of the grant from the Elizabeth Thompson science fund, Professor Cooper expects to complete his field work upon this problem during the coming summer.

The professor's findings will no doubt be published in a university pamphlet and a copy should be gained by the Crow Wing County Historical society to be placed among its archives.

Bemidji Seeks State Institution

BEMIDJI, which was one of the last cities of the state to gain a normal school and which is also profiting by the establishment of state game refuges in the north country, is now seeking another proposed state institution, namely the erection of a branch state penitentiary.

Brainerd up to date has not housed a single state institution. At the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce notice was taken of the proposed extension of prison or reformatory institutions of the state and a committee headed by President C. A. Ryan of the Chamber of Commerce will enter the lists as an active bidder.

There is a possibility that the necessary appropriation will be granted to the state board of control at the next session of the legislature. It is reported that the state board of control is going to make a decided effort to secure an appropriation for a new penitentiary, which will relieve congested conditions now existing at both the state penitentiary at Stillwater and the St. Cloud reformatory.

Advancing the Barber Craft

P. J. MCGILL, secretary of the State Barber's Board, familiarly known to all his friends here as Pat, was in town and was remarking about the advancement in the barber business.

Arrangements have been made, said Mr. McGill, for University of Minnesota extension courses on bacteriology and hygiene, which, including laboratory work, will extend over a period of 20 lessons.

Any complaints against the craft are investigated and where necessary, prosecutions follow. "Insanitary practices alleged in certain big city shops were investigated and where evidence warranted it, prosecutions in the courts followed.

The general standard of the barber business is one of constant improvement, looking to the comfort and convenience of patrons and coupled with all necessary observance of the best rules in sanitation, scalp and facial treatments, etc.

Bereaved in Buffalo Tragedy

Henri Marchand, well-known artist, and his daughter, with the dog which watched over the body of Mrs. Marchand after the latter had been beaten to death with a hammer. "Princess Lila" Jimerson, said to be the last of the Indian princesses, and an aged squaw, Nancy Bowen, accuse each other of the crime. The Indian girl is said to have been enamored of the white man, to whom she has written a pleading letter from her jail cell asking for his help. (International Newsreel)

Again Soars to Record

Elinor Smith, diminutive flyer from Freeport, L. I., being welcomed back to earth by her mother after the aviatrix had shattered the women's altitude record by ascending about 30,000 feet in an hour and a half. The special barograph sealed in the plane before the take-off was delivered immediately to an official observer for the National Aeronautic Association and is to be examined before the record can be accepted officially. At Funeral of Chief Justice

President and Mrs. Hoover leaving All Souls' Unitarian Church, Washington, D. C., where they attended the funeral services for the late former President and Chief Justice William H. Taft, as the nation paid tribute to his memory. After the church services the body of the great jurist was escorted by a great military procession to Arlington National Cemetery, where the interment took place. (International Newsreel)

CROSBY-IRONTON ELIMINATED FROM REGIONAL TOURNAMENT

WEAKENS BEFORE DRIVING POWER OF

APPLETON, 32-29

RANGERS FALL IN FIRST ROUND
OF REGIONAL MEET AT ST.
CLOUD ARMORY

BUFFALO DEFEATS MELROSE;
RED WING, AUSTIN, CHIS-
HOLM, DULUTH WIN

Upset by Appleton's powerful offense, Crosby-Ironton high school, winner of the 11th district basketball crown by defeating Brainerd in overtime play for the championship, was eliminated from further play in its quest for further cage honors.

The Rangers' defeat came at the regional tournament at the St. Cloud armory last evening in the second game. Appleton won by the score of 32 to 29.

The defeat was considered an upset as Crosby-Ironton was considered a favorite to win the regional tournament.

Buffalo, by defeating Melrose by the score of 28 to 22 in the first encounter of the evening, won the right to enter the finals at St. Cloud this evening. Wright, who is the Appleton center, scored 18 points. Appleton took but one long shot all evening. Wright, near the basket, was fed the ball by his teammates, and made his points with practically all short shots. Their team work was excellent, and they were generally in the scoring lead all through the game.

Willmar Beaten
Columbia Heights upset the dope in the first round of the fourth region by defeating Willmar 25 to 22. Princeton, by virtue of its 26 to 17 victory over Chicago City, will meet the Heights team in the finals tonight.

Red Wing, Mankato Win
Red Wing and Mankato won at Northfield last evening, the former defeating St. Charles by the score of 19 to 17 and the latter winning from Owatonna by 27 to 24.

Austin, Wells Win
Austin and Wells won the first games of the eighth region at Fairmont. The Packers, who entered as favorites, won from Caledonia, 26 to 16, and Wells defeated Luverne, 12-7.

Duluth, Chisholm Win
Chisholm and Duluth Central high school meet tonight for the second region basketball championship as the result of victories in the opening play last evening at Chisholm. Chisholm defeating Gilbert 32 to 9 and Central defeating Bemidji 24 to 9.

Prowlers Down Warren
Thief River Falls Prowlers won from Warren in the finals of the district tournament at the Falls, 27 to 18, last evening.

SPORTS KAYOES

By "HAPPY"

That Appleton high school basketball team knocked a lot of Brainerd basketball fans out of a trip to St. Cloud this evening when they eliminated Crosby-Ironton last evening, 32 to 29. Doubtless many fans from the range and from Little Falls too will have to find some other method of amusement this evening now that the Robins from the Range are out of the competition for the state title.

Yesterday we doped out a way for Crosby-Ironton to win the regional title and said that it would be nice if it would work out that way. Now we can say that it would have been nice if it only had have worked out that way.

Bemidji suffered a bump on the nose too last night. They were forced to bow to Duluth Central 24-9. Our dope bucket in that regional may not be entirely upset for we predicted Chisholm to win the regional. The boys from Chisholm took Gilbert into camp last evening by a score of 32-9. We still think that they will repeat this evening against Duluth Central.

Willmar, another favorite to go to the state this year, found the going with Columbia Heights a little too rough last evening. The final score was 25-22. Columbia Heights narrowly missed a chance to represent the fourth region at the state last year.

What a ball game the fans of the seventh region are going to see this evening when Mankato and Red Wing lock horns! Red Wing has a reputation for turning out a good team year after year but last night they were forced to the limit to nose out St. Charles by two points. Mankato has a fine ball club this year too, and there will be plenty of fur flying this evening no matter who wins the contest.

Bronko Nagurski's ball club lost last evening to the Chicago Bruins by a score of 31 to 20. That reminds us that we read this afternoon that Bronko Nagurski announced yesterday that he had signed a contract to play next football season with the Chicago Bears of the National League. Bronko should make a good running mate for Grange, Driscoll, Sternaman and Co.

Some one of Mr. Wood's Robins must have been suffering from sleeping sickness last evening if the Robins employed their usual man to man defense. At least the scorebook shows that a certain Mr. Wright of Apple-

TENTATIVE DATE MAR. 24

A spring wrestling card of no little moment is planned in Brainerd on Monday evening, March 24, with Fred Ross of Pequot meeting Alfred Barslou of Swea City.

Johnny Beck of Brainerd, state lightweight champion, who will forsake the ring temporarily to promote the encounter, business reasons preventing his entry in the game, is negotiating with Ross to meet the fast fellow from the corn state.

Barslou is anxious to meet Ross and looking forward to acceptance of his challenge, has already established training quarters in Brainerd.

The 133-pounder is recognized as one of the leading contenders for the lightweight crown. Since his victory in the Rocky Mountain tournament in 1928 and his prowess over Art Holding of the American Olympic wrestling team, Barslou has tried consistently to get Jack Fisher, the lightweight champ, on the mat. Fisher has successfully eluded Barslou in spite of the fact that Barslou has offered to meet Fisher's side bet of $500 on the result of a tussle with him in his class.

Little need be said of Ross. His wrestling abilities are well known here. He is a veteran of the mat. Fans will remember the two-hour clash between he and Beck last spring which Beck won in two out of three falls.

CLASSY FIELD IS COMPETING IN ILLINOIS RELAYS

900 REPRESENTATIVES IN IN-

MEET AT CHAMPAIGN

SO EXCEPTIONAL IS THE EVENT
THAT MANY RECORDS MAY BE BROKEN

By BERT DEMBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Champaign, Ill., March 15.—Out of the east, middle west and southwest today came some 900 athletes, comprising as classy a field as ever entered the event, to compete in the Illinois relays, the most important of the indoor track and field meets.

So exceptional was the entry list that observers predicted that before the event is over several of the present champions will have been dethroned and new records established in many events.

The one outstanding man who appears certain to repeat is Barney Berlinger, Pennsylvania's great all-around man who last year set an Illinois record, by scoring 6,070 points out of a possible 7,000 to win the all-around championship.

But contrasting to Berlinger's chance of repeating is the opportunity offered to George Simpson, the great Ohio State sprinter. Simpson must face such men as Eddie Tolan, the Michigan negro, Meier of Iowa and Hans of Minnesota.

In the hurdles, Dick Rockaway of Ohio State, one of the country's best last year, will be facing such men as Haydon, Chicago; Lamson, Nebraska; Hager, Iowa State, and Sentman of Illinois.

The pole vault figures to be a three-cornered battle between Tom Warne, Northwestern; Henry Canby, Iowa, and Verne McDermot of Illinois.

Orval Martin, the great Purdue middle distance man, figures to win in his events as does Edward Gordon of Iowa who can cover approximately 24 feet in the broad jump.

Bert Nelson of Butler, took a commanding position in the high jump for the year when he leaped six feet, six and three-quarters inches recently. He is favored to win here.

The same favoritism applies to Jim Bausch of Kansas, who put the shot 48 feet, 7 inches last week-end to win the Big Six event. Bausch will be opposed, however, by men like Behr of Wisconsin, Proctor of Michigan; Weaver of Chicago, and Vossler of Miami, all of whom are capable of winning.

In the high hurdles shuttle relay—

one of the seven points on the relay program—Nebraska is expected to put in a strong bid to retain the title it won last year.

REPORT DEMPSEY TO START TRAINING AT ENSENADA
Los Angeles, March 15.—(U.P.)—Reports were current in sporting circles today that Jack Dempsey plans to begin training at Ensenada, Lower California, Mexico, some time in May for a bout in Chicago.

Close friends of the former heavyweight champion said he had decided to return to the ring in his own club at Chicago this fall.

It was believed that if Dempsey does train in Lower California, it will be because he and Gene Norville, his former manager, are financially interested in a new resort under construction there.

Dempsey's selection of the club as a training place would greatly publicize it, friends pointed out.

Brainos Beverages and the Princess Candies put on a good fight last evening, Brainos winning two games. Hal-las was high man for the evening, rolling 210, 150 and 188 for a 548 total. His 210 in the first game failed to win, as Brainos hit over 900. The Princess rolled 900 the last game. This ties these two teams for third place, one game behind Study Club. E. M. B. A. has a secure hold on first place.

The Town Pump took three games from the All Stars who rolled three men.

The Town Pump hit together for 952 in the last game. Boyd was high with 525, and Earl Brandow one pin less total. Boyd's 209 was the only 200 count in the match.

During the regular indoor season, from October through April, the Garden stages a show nearly every week, usually on Friday nights; and in the Summer, two or three big open air shows in one or more of Gotham's huge baseball parks.

CROSBY-IRONTON ELIMINATED FROM REGIONAL TOURNAMENT

WEAKENS BEFORE DRIVING POWER OF APPLETON, 32-29

RANGERS FALL IN FIRST ROUND
OF REGIONAL MEET AT ST.
CLOUD ARMORY

BUFFALO DEFEATS MELROSE;
RED WING, AUSTIN, CHIS-
HOLM, DULUTH WIN

Upset by Appleton's powerful offense, Crosby-Ironton high school, winner of the 11th district basketball crown by defeating Brainerd in overtime play for the championship, was eliminated from further play in its quest for further cage honors.

The Rangers' defeat came at the regional tournament at the St. Cloud armory last evening in the second game. Appleton won by the score of 32 to 29.

The defeat was considered an upset as Crosby-Ironton was considered a favorite to win the regional tournament.

Buffalo, by defeating Melrose by the score of 28 to 22 in the first encounter of the evening, won the right to enter the finals at St. Cloud this evening. Wright, who is the Appleton center, scored 18 points. Appleton took but one long shot all evening. Wright, near the basket, was fed the ball by his teammates and made his points with practically all short shots. Their team work was excellent, and they were generally in the scoring lead all through the game.

Willmar Beaten
Columbia Heights upset the dope in the first round of the fourth region by defeating Willmar 25 to 22. Princeton, by virtue of its 26 to 17 victory over Chicago City, will meet the Heights team in the finals tonight.

Red Wing, Mankato Win
Red Wing and Mankato won at Northfield last evening, the former defeating St. Charles by the score of 19 to 17 and the latter winning from Owatonna by 27 to 24.

Austin, Wells Win
Austin and Wells won the first games of the eighth region at Fairmont. The Packers, who entered as favorites, won from Caledonia, 26 to 16, and Wells defeated Luverne, 12-7.

Duluth, Chisholm Win
Chisholm and Duluth Central high school meet tonight for the second region basketball championship as the result of victories in the opening play last evening at Chisholm. Chisholm defeating Gilbert 32 to 9 and Central defeating Bemidji 24 to 9.

Prowlers Down Warren
Thief River Falls Prowlers won from Warren in the finals of the district tournament at the Falls, 27 to 18, last evening.

SPORTS KAYOES

By "HAPPY"

That Appleton high school basketball team knocked a lot of Brainerd basketball fans out of a trip to St. Cloud this evening when they eliminated Crosby-Ironton last evening, 32 to 29. Doubtless many fans from the range and from Little Falls too will have to find some other method of amusement this evening now that the Robins from the Range are out of the competition for the state title.

Yesterday we doped out a way for Crosby-Ironton to win the regional title and said that it would be nice if it would work out that way. Now we can say that it would have been nice if it only had have worked out that way.

Bemidji suffered a bump on the nose too last night. They were forced to bow to Duluth Central 24-9. Our dope bucket in that regional may not be entirely upset for we predicted Chisholm to win the regional. The boys from Chisholm took Gilbert into camp last evening by a score of 32-9. We still think that they will repeat this evening against Duluth Central.

Willmar, another favorite to go to the state this year, found the going with Columbia Heights a little too rough last evening. The final score was 25-22. Columbia Heights narrowly missed a chance to represent the fourth region at the state last year.

What a ball game the fans of the seventh region are going to see this evening when Mankato and Red Wing lock horns! Red Wing has a reputation for turning out a good team year after year but last night they were forced to the limit to nose out St. Charles by two points. Mankato has a fine ball club this year too, and there will be plenty of fly flying this evening no matter who wins the contest.

Bronko Nagurski's ball club lost last evening to the Chicago Bruins by a score of 31 to 26. That reminds us that we read this afternoon that Bronko Nagurski announced yesterday that he had signed a contract to play next football season with the Chicago Bears of the National League. Bronko should make a good running mate for Grange, Driscoll, Sternaman and Co.

Some one of Mr. Wood's Robins must have been suffering from sleeping sickness last evening if the Robins employed their usual man to man defense. At least the scorebook shows that a certain Mr. Wright of Appleton counted 18 points "all by his lone some" against the range crew.

Moorhead, last year's state champs, must have experienced little difficulty last evening in winning from Fergus Falls (and those boys aren't so slow either). The boys from Moorhead won in a walk, 42-20.

That game between Appleton and Buffalo at St. Cloud this evening should be a hot one. We predicted that Buffalo would bow to C.I. in the finals, but now that Appleton has eliminated the Rangers, it looks like anybody's ball game this evening.

Appleton seems to be a sort of Nemesis to teams from this district. A lot of Brainerd fans are still crying over the time that Appleton sent Coach Kasech and his boys home two years ago when the Brainerd boys looked like the class of the region.

The San Francisco Olympic Club and the Henry's of Wichita, Kansas, will meet this evening for the National A. A. U. basketball crown at Kansas City. The Olympic Club was forced into an overtime battle last evening in the semi-final round to beat the Bethany College cagers, 23-21. The Henry's went into the finals by virtue of their victory over the East Central Teacher's College cagers of Ada, Okla., 27-22.

DE VOS, BELGIAN, WINS CLEAN FIGHT FROM CHASTIAN

Chicago, March 15.—(U.P.)—A foreign youth, Rene De Vos of Belgium, loomed today as a serious contender for the middleweight boxing championship held by Mickey Walker as a result of his clean cut ten-round victory over Clyde Chastian, Dallas mauler, last night. A CHANCE FOR GUN PRACTICE

Warner Oland, Richard Arlen, Nancy Carroll in a scene from the Paramount Picture, "Dangerous Paradise". Directed by William A. Wellman

South Sea Story Nancy Carroll's First Star Film

After twelve pictures, which include some of Paramount's biggest hits, Nancy Carroll, red-headed, dancing, singing screen-player, will be seen at the Paramount Sunday only, in her first starring picture, "Dangerous Paradise." It is a gripping story of South Sea love and adventure, from incidents in a novel by Joseph Conrad.

As a member of an all-girl orchestra, Miss Carroll displays a new talent in "Dangerous Paradise." She plays the violin. Menaced by the proprietor of the South Sea hotel, in which the orchestra plays, Nancy flees to a tiny island where Richard Arlen, disappointed in love and embittered against all women, lives alone. She is interested in Arlen but his cold aloofness makes her furious. However, when three brutal neo-do-wells from the hotel follow her to the island, planning to rob and kill Arlen, her love triumphs in a breath-taking climax filled with action and suspense.

New York, March 15.—(UP)—Three international radio broadcasts will be heard Sunday on the NBC and Columbia networks. Two of the programs will be from London and the third from Dresden.

Eight of Germany's best known operatic stars singing from the stage of the State Opera house in Dresden, will be heard in a portion of Beethoven's "Fidelio" at 2 p. m. over the combined networks of WJZ and WEAF.

An hour before the opera program, Ed. L. Keen, vice president for Europe of the United Press, will discuss the religious situation in Russia over the combined networks of WJZ and WEAF. Keen has just returned to London from Moscow, where he wrote a series of articles on the Soviet campaign against the church. These articles were praised by newspaper editors throughout the country for their remarkably clear and impartial summary of the Russian situation.

Columbia's international broadcast Sunday will be at 12:30 p. m. and will be featured by Frederic William Wile's description of the five-power naval conference.

Fifteen or more of the most celebrated bandmasters of America will conduct the Arco Concert band at 3 p. m. Sunday over a network including WLW, Cincinnati; WMAQ, Chicago; KMBC, Kansas City; and WLL, St. Louis. Among the baton wielders will be John Philip Sousa, Edwin Franko Goldman, Austin A. Harding, Karl King, Henry Fillmore, Capt. R. B. Hayward and Peter Buys.

An audience of 600 specially invited guests including political leaders, novelists, theatrical producers, newspapermen and radio moguls will attend the formal opening at 8:15 p. m. Sunday of the dedication of the Times Square studio of the NBC during presentation of Collier's hour. Grand Duchess Marie of Russia, Mayor Jimmie Walker and Dr. Clarence True Wilson will be among the dedicatory speakers. Walker will speak from Chicago.

Chevrolet announces

A NEW

SERVICE POLICY

The Chevrolet Motor Company and its nation-wide dealer organization are pleased to announce a new and broader service policy—one of the most liberal ever offered on a low-priced automobile.

Put into force as a written and signed agreement given to the purchaser by the Chevrolet dealer when the car is delivered—it offers the following provisions:

- 1 Every Chevrolet owner receives his car from the dealer in perfect condition—thoroughly lubricated, properly adjusted, and ready to operate with maximum efficiency from the very first mile of ownership.
- 2 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free inspection and adjustment of his car at the end of the first 500 miles of usage.
- 3 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free inspection of his car every 1000 miles thereafter, so long as the car is in operation.
- 4 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free replacement of any part which may prove defective in workmanship or material, within the terms of Chevrolet's standard warranty. This includes both parts and labor.
- 5 Provision number 4 will be carried out by any Chevrolet dealer in the United States. As a result, the Chevrolet owner may travel to any part of the country, with assurance that the guarantee on materials and workmanship will remain in force.

This new policy constitutes definite proof of Chevrolet's high quality—for such liberal provisions could only be made in connection with a car built of fine materials to exacting standards of workmanship.

Back of this policy, and assuring its successful operation, is one of the most complete and efficient service organizations in the world.

There are more than 10,000 Authorized Chevrolet Dealer Service Stations in the United States alone. Each employs skilled mechanics thoroughly trained at Chevrolet Service Schools. Each has specially designed tools and machinery developed exclusively for Chevrolet service work. And each has on hand, at all times, an adequate stock of genuine Chevrolet replacement parts.

As a result, Chevrolet's flat-rate charges, including both parts and labor, are the lowest in the industry on many service operations!

In considering the purchase of a low-priced automobile, think what this service means—in terms of lasting satisfaction, as well as in increased economy.

BEATS AGED FATHER, THROWS FOOD AWAY

Eugene Davidson Sentenced to 60 Days in Jail Without Option of Fine

FATHER TELLS STORY

Son Blames Liquor for Misdeeds; Father Claims he Choked and Kicked Him

A 75 year old man, ill, unable to work, told a pitiful story in municipal court this morning of being choked and kicked by his son in a fit of drunken rage, thrown from his own home, and food he was cooking for the evening meal for himself and his aged wife taken from the stove and hurled outside after him.

Eugene Davidson, the son, who claimed he did not know what he was doing because he was "drunk" entered a plea of guilty to assault and battery in the third degree against his father, John Davidson.

Judge J. H. Warner sentenced the offender to 60 days in the city jail without option of a fine.

Captain of Police Charles Varner and Officer Sande who made the arrest were forced to search the house before finding the defendant. They found him in a hole in the wall with a dresser hiding him. The father claimed the hiding place was purposely made to prevent the police from finding him should they attempt to arrest him. He also said that the son had devised a means of escape from the basement.

The father told of previous times when his son had molested him.

He told the following story of what happened at the family home in N. E. Brainerd at 6 o'clock last evening at the time of the assault:

"I was getting supper. My son came in the back door and said 'what are you doing you old son of a—' He then took off his coat and grabbed me by the throat and started choking me. Then he started to kick me. His mother came in and tried to help me but he took me and threw me outside over the railing. Then he threw the food I had cooking on the stove for supper outside. I went over to the neighbor and called the police."

On questioning of City Attorney D. H. Fullerton, Mr. Davidson said that the son also mistreated his mother using indecent language before her.

"Is this the first time that your son has struck you?" questioned Mr. Fullerton.

"No," replied Mr. Davidson, "it has happened a number of times."

"Does he ever help you," asked Mr. Fullerton.

"No. He doesn't even care if we have water or wood in the house as long as he gets his 'squirrel' whiskey. I own the house and have allowed him room. He is 47 years old. I have asked him to leave several times but he won't. You couldn't drive him away but I have seen the time when I wouldn't have stood for anything from him. I am too old now. He lost his job at the... because men were carrying liquor to him. He doesn't care how he acts around the house. He even goes to bed with a cigarette in his mouth."

Before pleading guilty the son said he did not realize what he was doing as he was drunk.

"I got sore at him because he didn't have anything to eat for my mother. I have been working steadily and have been helping him. I give him $5 and sometimes $10 every payday. I help him as much as I can."

BODIES OF EIELSON AND BORLAND LIE IN STATE AT SEWARD

Seward, Alaska, March 15.—(AP)—With a guard of honor composed of members of the local American Legion post, the bodies of Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland lay in state here today.

They will be placed aboard a boat Sunday to be sent to Seattle. Canadian and Russian flags were displayed with the stars and stripes, denoting participation of the three nations in the long search for the bodies in Siberia.

Ole Eielson, father of the dead flier, is bearing up well under the strain which saw him waiting weeks for discovery of the body of his son after the plane was found. Mrs. Earl Borland, widow of the mechanic, who is accompanying the body with her two children, also bore her grief well.

BIGGER PROFITS IN MILK BY MARKETING SAME THROUGH VEAL

"The excellent prices being paid for well finished veal calves and the relatively low price of whole milk as well as butterfat offers an unusual opportunity to dairymen to cut down the surplus of butterfat," Veterinarian Dr. C. A. Nelson writes. "It will also help to keep down the accumulation of dairy stock."

He continues: "Only four to six weeks is required to produce a choice veal calf. At three weeks a calf from the larger breeds, if well fed, becomes a good market vealer that should weigh 120 to 135 pounds. At five weeks, if the calf gets plenty of whole milk it should weigh 140 to 175 pounds and command top market price."

"Veal at 12 cents will return $3.00 per hundred for calves weighing 120 to 135 pounds. Veal at 14 cents will return $4.00 per hundred weight to milk consumed. "Dairy calves make fine veal when well finished and high quality veal can only be produced by the liberal feeding of whole milk. Only one additional week feeding of whole milk would make a tremendous difference in weight and quality of veal produced and become a great source of profit to the dairymen."

"If the dairy men would unite on such a program for only a short time it would also remove the surplus of butterfat in storage and automatically raise the price to last years level, which was fairly satisfactory."

ENTHUSIASTICALLY RECEIVE IDEA

Spring Trade Week March 24 to 29 Assured of Success

MANY MERCHANTS TO JOIN Solicitation of 200 Prizes to be Carried Out by Committee Monday

The general sentiment in regard to Spring Trade Week, set for the period of March 24 to 29, as sponsored by the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce, is one of enthusiastic reception in regard to the idea and that its acceptance will mean an era of busy trade and extension of Brainerd's trade territory.

Many wish to be informed regarding the disposition of the prizes. The committee in charge of solicitation of the prizes, who will commence their work Monday, expect to gain at least 200 prizes. Each merchant who enters the Spring Trade Week campaign will give away each day a number of prizes, the winning numbers to be posted in respective store windows.

All that is necessary to claim one of these prizes is to bring down a copy of Friday's paper which will contain serial numbers. If the number carried by the patron's paper corresponds with the number shown in the merchant's display window, he will step inside and claim the prize.

The more extended the prizes are, the more merchants entering the Spring Trade Week, the greater will be the number of people drawn to Brainerd and the greater the extension of the consequent shopping area.

For example, here is what the local show house will do. At the Public theatre 25 numbers will be posted each day of Spring Trade Week, with corresponding numbers in the newspaper, and holder of the newspaper containing such number will be entitled to a free admission for that day.

PREVIEWERS PRAISE "DISRAELI" HIGHLY

Citizens Join in Expressions of Enjoyment at Seeing Masterful Performance

SHOWS HERE MARCH 20-21

George Arliss, Dean of Stage Stars, at His Best in Screen Version of Successful Play

Citizens of Brainerd who saw the preview showing of "Disraeli" starring the incomparable George Arliss at the Paramount this morning as the guest of Geo. D. Irwin, manager of the theatre were one hundred percent in accord with enthusiasm in proclaiming it one of the finest and worthwhile productions ever offered to the public.

The screen version of George Arliss' tremendous stage success which has made the dean of dramatic stars known throughout the country as "Mr. Disraeli" will be presented at the Paramount theatre under auspices of the St. Paul's Episcopal church Thursday and Friday, March 20 and 21.

Those privileged to see the previewing of the production this morning unhesitatingly gave their endorsement of the play itself, each and every player and particularly Mr. Arliss.

These testimonials were offered: Rev. N. P. Olmsted, pastor of the First Congregational church: "This is a picture that I can most heartily recommend."

Rev. C. M. Brandon: "I am pleased to endorse 'Disraeli.' It is that rare type of picture which inspires one. It is splendid."

Carl Zapffe who witnessed Mr. Arliss in the stage play in Chicago a few years ago:

"The picture follows very closely the lines of the stage play. The principal difference is in being able to show outside scenes and create greater continuity. The stage play enables more dialogue, but no effectiveness is lost in the shorter dialogue of the picture. In both the stage and screen productions it is George Arliss' performance that commands one's interest. With such a skilled artist in a master role one can not expect other than perfection. If you like high class artistry Arliss provides it, and no one need feel that the screen version of 'Disraeli' is in any sense inferior. With Arliss, there can be no such thing as inferiority, and in 'Disraeli' he is at his best."

Miss Mary Tornstrom, principal of the Brainerd high school: "Disraeli is the best talking picture I have ever seen. I firmly believe it is the best so far produced. The humor offered is delicious."

Miss Aletha Herwig of the Brainerd high school faculty: "There has been nothing produced to date to compare with 'Disraeli.' It is a most remarkable production."

Mrs. W. C. Cobb: "Congratulations on 'Disraeli.' It is a credit to any program. I am indeed proud to recommend this play as an outstanding contribution to screen art."

Mrs. J. H. Herbert: "I was thrilled by the performance. I enjoyed it very, very much."

Mrs. Robert Anderson: "Disraeli is an exceptionally marvellous production."

Mrs. Clara Close: "I think it unquestionably one of the finest productions one could wish to see."

Miss Margaret Armstrong: "I thoroughly enjoyed it. It was superior to words."

BEATS AGED FATHER, THROWS FOOD AWAY

Eugene Davidson Sentenced to 60 Days in Jail Without Option of Fine

FATHER TELLS STORY

Son Blames Liquor for Misdeeds; Father Claims he Choked and Kicked Him

A 75 year old man, ill, unable to work, told a pitiful story in municipal court this morning of being choked and kicked by his son in a fit of drunken rage, thrown from his own home, and food he was cooking for the evening meal for himself and his aged wife taken from the stove and hurled outside after him.

Eugene Davidson, the son, who called him did not know what he was doing because he was 'drunk' entered a plea of guilty to assault and battery in the third degree against his father John Davidson.

Judge J. H. Warner sentenced the offender to 60 days in the city jail without option of a fine.

Captain of Police Charles Varner and Officer Sande who made the arrest were forced to search the house before finding the defendant. They found him in a hole in the wall with a dresser hiding him. The father claimed the hiding place was purposely made to prevent the police from finding him should they attempt to arrest him. He also said that the son had devised a means of escape from the basement.

The father told of previous times when his son had molested him. He told the following story of what happened at the family home in N. E. Brainerd at 6 o'clock last evening at the time of the assault:

"I was getting supper. My son came in the back door and said 'what are you doing you old son of a—'. He then took off his coat and grabbed me by the throat and started choking me. Then he started to kick me. His mother came in and tried to help me but he took me and threw me outside over the railing. Then he threw the food I had cooking on the stove for supper outside. I went over to the neighbor and called the police."

On questioning of City Attorney D. H. Fullerton, Mr. Davidson said that the son also mistreated his mother using indecent language before her.

"Is this the first time that your son has struck you?" questioned Mr. Fullerton.

"No," replied Mr. Davidson, "it has happened a number of times."

"Does he ever help you?" asked Mr. Fullerton.

"No. He doesn't even care if we have water or wood in the house as long as he gets his 'squirrel' whiskey. I own the house and have allowed him room. He is 47 years old. I have asked him to leave several times but he won't. You couldn't drive him away but I have seen the time when I wouldn't have stood for anything from him. I am too old now. He lost his job at the ... because men were carrying liquor to him. He doesn't care how he acts around the house. He even goes to bed with a cigarette in his mouth."

Before pleading guilty the son said he did not realize what he was doing as he was drunk.

"I got sore at him because he didn't have anything to eat for my mother. I have been working steadily and have been helping him. I gave him $5 and sometimes $10 every payday. I help him as much as I can."

BODIES OF EIELSON AND BORLAND LIE IN STATE AT SEWARD

Seward, Alaska, March 15.—(U.P.)—With a guard of honor composed of members of the local American Legion post, the bodies of Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland lay in state here today.

They will be placed aboard a boat Sunday to be sent to Seattle. Canadian and Russian flags were displayed with the stars and stripes, denoting participation of the three nations in the long search for the bodies in Siberia.

Ole Eielson, father of the dead flier, is bearing up well under the strain which saw him waiting weeks for discovery of the body of his son after the plane was found. Mrs. Earl Borland, widow of the mechanic, who is accompanying the body with her two children, also bore her grief well.

BIGGER PROFITS IN MILK BY MARKETING SAME THROUGH VEAL

"The excellent prices being paid for well finished veal calves and the relatively low price of whole milk as well as butterfat offers an unusual opportunity to dairymen to cut down the surplus of butterfat," Veterinarian Dr. C. A. Nelson writes. "It will also help to keep down the accumulation of dairy stock."

He continues:

"Only four to six weeks is required to produce a choice veal calf. At three weeks a calf from the larger breeds, if well fed, becomes a good market vealer that should weigh 120 to 135 pounds. At five weeks, if the calf gets plenty of whole milk it should weigh 140 to 175 pounds and command top market price."

"Veal at 12 cents will return $3.00 per hundred for calves weighing 120 to 135 pounds. Veal at 14 cents will return $4.00 per hundred weight to milk consumed."

"Dairy calves make fine veal when well finished and high quality veal can only be produced by the liberal feeding of whole milk. Only one additional week feeding of whole milk would make a tremendous difference in weight and quality of veal produced and become a great source of profit to the dairymen."

"If the dairy men would unite on such a program for only a short time it would also remove the surplus of butterfat in storage and automatically raise the price to last years level, which was fairly satisfactory."

ENTHUSIASTICALLY RECEIVE IDEA

Spring Trade Week March 24 to 29 Assured of Success

MANY MERCHANTS TO JOIN Solicitation of 200 Prizes to be Carried Out by Committee Monday

The general sentiment in regard to Spring Trade Week, set for the period of March 24 to 29, as sponsored by the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce, is one of enthusiastic reception in regard to the idea and that its acceptance will mean an era of busy trade and extension of Brainerd's trade territory.

Many wish to be informed regarding the disposition of the prizes. The committee in charge of solicitation of the prizes, who will commence their work Monday, expect to gain at least 200 prizes. Each merchant who enters the Spring Trade Week campaign will give away each day a number of prizes, the winning numbers to be posted in respective store windows.

All that is necessary to claim one of these prizes is to bring down a copy of Friday's paper which will contain serial numbers. If the number carried by the patron's paper corresponds with the number shown in the merchant's display window, he will step inside and claim the prize.

The more extended the prizes are, the more merchants entering the Spring Trade Week, the greater will be the number of people drawn to Brainerd and the greater the extension of the consequent shopping area.

For example, here is what the local show house will do. At the Public theatre 25 numbers will be posted each day of Spring Trade Week, with corresponding numbers in the newspaper, and holder of the newspaper containing such number will be entitled to a free admission for that day.

"MASTER of MONEY"

BY ROY VICKERS

CHAPTER XXXI.

TEN miles ahead of them in the shadow, it seemed, of the old Turkish fortress that frowned from a long, squat hilltop, lay the city that is older than the written word—the city that has known more of war, plague, pestilence and famine than any other city in the world.

"That's Salonica ahead!" said Alan absently. "I suppose it has a sort of prettiness—a beauty even—seen from here. It's that litter of minarets and white towers—they aren't really towers—and those grim-looking hills. But really it's the ugliest place in the world, Shirley. The whole country has a queer genius for making itself hated. You'll find that."

"I shall love it!" said Shirley. "Perhaps it has been waiting all these centuries for just that."

Absorbed in the view, she had slipped her arm through his.

"H'm! An amusing fancy! But I doubt if it will work out in practice. . . . You won't find any difficulty in walking about deck now," he added. "The sea is as steady as a millpond." As he spoke he disengaged himself from her arm, walked on a little and began to fill a pipe.

Shirley continued to gaze towards the city, scarcely noticing that he had left her side. Ahead was the land of adventure, and behind, by countless miles and vast stretches of time, were the conventionalities of New York, the remote nightmare of Roger and lawyers with settlements and incredible, irritating tactfulness.

The week or so of the Bohemian life with Alan she remembered now as a maze of work and confused activity. There had been endless trouble with the consulates and it had been practically impossible for her to obtain the necessary papers under her own name. As Mrs. Brenaway, however, everything in the end had been simple. It was odd, she thought, that from the moment when she had first taken his name to get over a trifling awkwardness with the porter at the flat the name had clung to her.

"It won't matter here. No one knows us," she told herself. "Of course, it didn't matter in New York either."

An atmosphere of furtiveness had crept about the use of Alan's name—and that had irked her. It might be no more than a mere social prejudice, but there was, she discovered, something distinctly shabby in describing oneself as another man's wife.

She took a deep breath of the clean, morning air and shook herself, as if she were shaking off all the little shabbiness that had inevitably clung to her in New York. She was in bounding health, equipped with clear knowledge of the work ahead of her, anxious to begin it.

"It will take them a bit of time to get through the harbor," said Alan, rejoining her. "Everything ready for the Customs?"

"No, I hurried up on deck when you tapped on my door," she answered. "I'm ever so glad I came—I wouldn't have missed this for anything."

"Tourist!" he grunted. "I'll come along in half an hour and see if you want anything strapped up."

As she returned to her cabin she glanced at her wrist-watch. He had said he would come in half an hour and she must take care not to keep him waiting.

Punctually to the minute he knocked on the door.

"All ready?" she told him. "As there isn't much room for two, you'd better snap out of it, Shirley. . . . Look here, you've left something."

He pointed to her night dress, partly concealed by the pillow.

"Oh, never mind! I'll leave it," she said. "There isn't an inch of room anywhere. I could only just manage."

"Nonsense, you can't afford to leave things about like that! If you haven't got room for it, roll it up and give it to me."

She obeyed and he stuffed it into the pocket of the overcoat on his arm.

"Shall I wait for you on deck?" she asked as she stepped out of the cabin.

"Yes, I shan't need you here. By the way, I'll do all the tipping."

No man had ever spoken to Shirley as Alan spoke to her, but she was quite unconscious of that fundamental fact. In small matters he would consult her taste and defer to her. For everything else he issued orders, which she would obey without discussion, finding an odd and wholly unconscious pleasure in obeying.

She went on deck, which was littered now with a nondescript medley of other passengers. There were merchants and various kinds of tradesmen of mingled nation-

"The rest of those poor devils will be on board for another six hours or so," Alan explained as they set foot on the quay. "Let's see now. . . . Through here's the quickest way out."

Shirley was wholly incurious as to how Alan had managed it. Once in her inmost thoughts she had contrasted his swift competence with Roger's blustering timidity. On their honeymoon Roger had always left her to deal with Customs and other officials. "They'll do more for a woman," he had explained.

They passed through the Customs buildings into a narrow enclosed space that was the dock-yard. Drawn up in a straggly line were six of the quaintest carriages Shirley had ever seen. They were, in fact, very old open carriages of the Victoria type, and each was drawn by two emaciated horses. "These things were probably in alities, but the Turkish type of face predominated.

So far she had not picked out a single western European.

Soon they were docked in the harbor and her view of the city was shut out by the Customs buildings.

As the gangway was lowered confusion broke out among passengers and crew alike. Alan led her to a deserted part of the deck. "There's nothing to be alarmed about," he explained. "They're like this—all talking at once and shouting each other about. As soon as the Customs men come on board I'll fix it. Here they are. Don't move from here until I come back."

She saw him shoulder his way through the babbling crowd and address an officer in Greek military uniform. For a few seconds they talked together; then Alan came toward her with the Greek officer, who saluted and addressed her in French.

"I will make it my business to see that madame is in no way inconvenienced. Permit your baggage to be sent to my private office and you may reclaim it at your leisure."

Shirley murmured thanks. They moved towards the gangway, where an avenue through the

They approached the nearest vehicle and a man in a very old silk hat stepped forward, bowing and smiling.

"The Lutetia," said Alan in French. "And I will give you five drachmas."

Shirley got in while Alan engaged himself in a prolonged haggle. Once he beckoned to her to get out, but as she was about to obey the bargain was concluded for another two and a half drachmas.

"What have we saved by all that talk?" she asked.

"Oh, in our money about a nickel," he answered. "If I had not haggle the word would have gone round to the various cut-throat societies that a couple of Irish foreigners had arrived."

The man in the silk hat mounted the driver's seat, called loudly, and presently a second man got up beside him and began to drive.

"How delightful! We're going to have a coachman as well," laughed Shirley.

AL CAPONE TO BE RELEASED SOON

Philadelphia, March 15.—(UP)—There was a bustle out around the eastern penitentiary today and many rumors about the imminent release of the institution's best known inmate—Al Capone, the Chicago gang leader.

He has been serving a year's sentence for carrying a concealed weapon. Time off for good behavior—and the Chicago "bad boy" has been a model prisoner—would permit his leave-taking Monday. Necessary papers for dismissal will be submitted to the governor.

Capone and his bodyguard, Frank Cline, were sentenced to one year in jail on May 17, 1929, after they pleaded guilty to charges of carrying concealed deadly weapons. They were arrested after they stepped from a theater where they went for relaxation during a few hours' stopover while en route from Atlantic City to Chicago.

Notice of Mortgage Foreclosure Sale

Default having been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage bearing date the 17th day of May, 1919, made, executed and delivered by Arlo J. Dierksen and Piete Dierksen, husband and wife, as mortgagors, to The First Joint Stock Land Bank of Minneapolis, a body corporate of the City of Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota, mortgagee, and with a power of sale therein contained and duly filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for Crow Wing County, Minnesota, on the 22nd day of May, 1919, at 2 o'clock P. M. and duly recorded in Book 26 of Mortgages on page 223, which said mortgage, together with the debt secured thereby was heretofore duly assigned by The First Joint Stock Land Bank of Minneapolis to Southern Minnesota Joint Stock Land Bank of Redwood Falls, (now Southern Minnesota Joint Stock Land Bank of Minneapolis), a body corporate of the City of Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota, by an instrument in writing, dated the 31st day of May, 1919, and duly filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Crow Wing County, Minnesota, on the 24th day of May, 1923, at 9 o'clock A. M. and duly recorded in Book 25 of Mortgages on page 354, which said mortgage secures one promissory note for Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200) dated the 17th day of May, 1919, payable on or before the 1st day of November in each year, and that said default consists in the failure of said mortgagors to pay one semi-annual installment of principal and interest of Forty Two Dollars ($42), which became due November 17, 1929, with interest on said defaulted installment, which said interest amounts to Eighty Nine Cents ($0.89) to date of this notice, and in the failure to pay the taxes for 1927 and 1928, which taxes, amounting with interest and penalties and costs to One Hundred Forty and 85-100 Dollars ($140.85) were paid by the assignee of mortgagee herein on the 27th day of January, 1930, which amount is due to said assignee of mortgagee with interest to date hereof amounting to Fifty Six Cents ($0.56), making a total of installment and interest and taxes and costs of One Hundred Forty Eight Dollars and 23-100 Dollars ($148.23), the amount due and claimed to be due and payable on said mortgage at the date of this notice; and whereas said assignee of mortgagee under the provisions of Chapter 280, General Laws of Minnesota, for 1925, has taken and deemed said defaulted semi-annual installments as a separate and independent mortgage; and whereas no action or proceeding has been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the mortgaged premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz: The East Half (E½) of the Northwest Quarter (NW¼) of the Southwest Quarter (SW¼) of the Northwest Quarter (NW¼) and Lot One (1) in Section Twenty Four (24), Township One Hundred Thirty Six (136), North, Range Twenty Nine (29), West, in Crow Wing County, Minnesota, with the hereditaments and appurtenances, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Crow Wing County at the main front door of the Court House in the City of Brainerd, Crow Wing County, Minnesota, on the 5th day of April, 1930, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of One Hundred Forty Eight Dollars and 23-100 Dollars ($148.23) and interest and taxes, if any, and Twenty Five Dollars ($25) attorney's fee and disbursements allowed by law, subject to the installments of principal and interest yet to become due on the mortgage and subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of sale as provided by law.

Dated February 15, 1930.

"MASTER of MONEY"

BY ROY VICKERS

CHAPTER XXXI.

TEN miles ahead of them in the shadow, it seemed, of the old Turkish fortress that frowned from a long, squat hilltop, lay the city that is older than the written word—the city that has known more of war, plague, pestilence and famine than any other city in the world.

"That's Salonica ahead!" said Alan absently. "I suppose it has a sort of prettiness—a beauty even—seen from here. Its that litter of minarets and white towers—they aren't really towers—and those grim-looking hills. But really it's the ugliest place in the world, Shirley. The whole country has a queer genius for making itself hated. You'll find that."

"I shall love it!" said Shirley. "Perhaps it has been waiting all these centuries for just that."

Absorbed in the view, she had slipped her arm through his. "H'm! An amusing fancy! But I doubt if it will work out in practice. . . . You won't find any difficulty in walking about deck now," he added. "The sea is as steady as a millpond." As he spoke he disengaged himself from her arm, walked on a little and began to fill a pipe.

Shirley continued to gaze towards the city, scarcely noticing that he had left her side. Ahead was the land of adventure, and behind, by countless miles and vast stretches of time, were the conventionalities of New York, the remote nightmare of Roger and lawyers with settlements and incredible, irritating tactfulness.

The week or so of the Bohemian life with Alan she remembered now as a maze of work and confused activity. There had been endless trouble with the consulates and it had been practically impossible for her to obtain the necessary papers under her own name.

As Mrs. Brennaway, however, everything in the end had been simple. It was odd, she thought, that from the moment when she had first taken his name to get over a trifling awkwardness with the porter at the flat the name had clung to her.

"It won't matter here. No one knows us," she told herself. "Of course, it didn't matter in New York either."

An atmosphere of furtiveness had crept about the use of Alan's name—and that had irked her. It might be no more than a mere social prejudice, but there was, she discovered, something distinctly shabby in describing oneself as another man's wife.

She took a deep breath of the clean, morning air and shook herself, as if she were shaking off all the little shabbinesses that had inevitably clung to her in New York. She was in bounding health, equipped with clear knowledge of the work ahead of her, anxious to begin it.

"It will take them a bit of time to get through the harbor," said Alan, rejoining her. "Everything ready for the Customs?"

"No. I hurried up on deck when you tapped on my door," she answered. "I'm ever so glad I came—I wouldn't have missed this for anything."

"Tourist!" he grunted. "I'll come along in half an hour and see if you want anything strapped up."

As she returned to her cabin she glanced at her wrist-watch. He had said he would come in half an hour and she must take care not to keep him waiting.

Punctually to the minute he knocked on the door. "All ready?" she told him. "As there isn't much room for two, you'd better snap out of it, Shirley. . . . Look here, you've left something."

He pointed to her night dress, partly concealed by the pillow. "Oh, never mind! I'll leave it," she said. "There isn't an inch of room anywhere. I could only just manage."

"Nonsense, you can't afford to leave things about like that! If you haven't got room for it, roll it up and give it to me."

She obeyed and he stuffed it into the pocket of the overcoat on his arm.

"Shall I wait for you on deck?" she asked as she stepped out of the cabin.

"Yes. I shan't need you here. By the way, I'll do all the tipping."

No man had ever spoken to Shirley as Alan spoke to her, but she was quite unconscious of that fundamental fact. In small matters he would consult her taste and defer to her. For everything else he issued orders, which she would obey without discussion, finding an odd and wholly unconscious pleasure in obeying.

Default having been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage bearing date the 17th day of May, 1919, made, executed and delivered by Arle Derksen and Edie Derksen, husband and wife, as mortgagors, to The First Joint Stock Land Bank of Minneapolis, a body corporate of the City of Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota, mortgage, and with a power of sale therein contained and duly filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Hennepin County, Minnesota, on the 22nd day of May, 1919, at 2 o'clock P. M. and duly recorded in Book 26 of Mortgages on page 325, which said mortgage, together with the debt secured thereby was heretofore duly assigned by The First Joint Stock Land Bank of Minneapolis to Southern Minnesota Joint Stock Land Bank of Redwood Falls, (now Southern Minnesota Joint Stock Land Bank of Minneapolis), a body corporate, of the City of Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota, by an instrument in writing, dated the 21st day of May, 1929, and duly filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Hennepin County, Minnesota, on the 21st day of May, 1929, at 9 o'clock A. M. and duly recorded in Book 26 of Mortgages on page 364, which said mortgage secures one promissory note for Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) of even date therewith, with principal and interest payable on the amortization plan in semi-annual installments of Eight Dollars ($8.00) each, payable on the 17th day of May and November in each year, and that said default has been made in the said mortgage of principal and interest of Forty Two Dollars ($42.00), which became due November 13, 1929, with interest on said defaulted installment, which said interest amounts to Eighty Two Cents ($82.00) to date of this notice, and the failure to pay the taxes for 1927 and 1928, which taxes, amounting with interest, penalties and costs to One Hundred Forty Dollars ($140.00), and that were paid by the assignee of mortgage herein on the 27th day of January, 1930, which amount is due this assignee of mortgage with interest to date hereof amounting to Fifty Six Cents ($56.00), making a total of installment and interest and taxes and interest on taxes of One Hundred Eighty Four Dollars ($184.00), the amount due and claimed to be due and payable on said mortgage at the date of this notice, and whereas said assignee of mortgage under the provisions of Chapter 280, General Laws of Minnesota for 1925, has taken and deemed said defaulted semi-annual installments as a separate and independent mortgage; and whereas no action or proceeding has been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the mortgaged premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz: The East Half (E1/4) of the Northwest Quarter (NW1/4) of the Southwest Quarter (SW1/4) of the Northwest Quarter (NW1/4) and Lot One (1) in Section Twenty Four (24), Township One Hundred Thirty Six (136), North, Range Twenty Nine (29), West, in Crow Wing County, Minnesota, with the hereditaments and appurtenances, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Crow Wing County, at the main front door of the Court House, in the City of Brainerd, Crow Wing County, Minnesota, on the 5th day of April, 1930, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of One Hundred Eighty Four Dollars ($184.00) and interest and taxes, if any, and Twenty Five Dollars ($25.00) attorney's fee and disbursements allowed by law, subject to the installments of principal and interest yet to become due on the mortgage and subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of sale as provided by law.

Dated February 15, 1930.
SOUTHERN MINNESOTA JOINT STOCK LAND BANK OF MINNEAPOLIS, (formerly Southern Minnesota Joint Stock Land Bank of Redwood Falls) Assignee of Mortgage.

Eight-Year-Old Marvel Hero of Four Rescues

Eight-year-old Palm Tippy, only child swimming instructor in the world and one of the youngest heroes on record. The freckle-faced lad dives from a ninety-foot tower, gives swimming instruction to his elders and goes on exhibition swimming tours when things get "slow." He learned to swim at the age of six months when he fell into the Miami River from a houseboat.

They Both Had Them

GLORIA BRISCOE

The folks at home would not have recognized her by that name, for there she was known as Gladys Briscoe, but then neither would they have recognized her with the extreme boyish bob that she was sporting and the carmine lips and the big flat pearl earrings that almost covered the tiny lower lobe of her much exposed ears. The blouse was new, too, sort of a bored, languid stroll. When Gloria had renamed herself she had overlooked the frailty of human nature to nickname and nickname and nickname, so she was slightly taken aback when all the men down at the office began calling her Gloria B. It sounded like an exclamation, not exactly of approval. In fact, by a certain infection of the voice there could be a little derision put into it, thus: Gloria B. I. Sometimes she wondered whether she was putting the ultra stiff across or whether there were still little ear marks of the country girl peeping out around the edges of her camouflage. But, anyhow, she was enjoying her freedom and the big life and the occasional cigarettes that made her head ache but added the finishing touch to this new Gloria—to this magnificent butterfly to whom Gladys had been only the grubby worm.

It was with gnawing impatience that she waited for her first vacation when she might go back home and dazzle her girlhood friends with this new apparition at which the Gladys of a year before had not even hinted a promise. It was along in August when she finally got away from the hot, sweltering city, Jack Desmond, her "steady," had promised to run down for a weekend at least, and she was speeding home ahead of him to put the place in order and instruct her family as to what to do—what to say—what to wear—what to eat, and how to do, say, wear and eat!

It was a trying time for old man Briscoe and his wife. Mrs. Briscoe was not permitted to wear her comfy old gingham dresses even in the kitchen in the mornings. Every time she said with pleasant interest: "Well, I do know!" she was glared at by her daughter. The old man's easy chair on the front porch—the one that sagged on one side and had the cowhide seat in it—had been whisked away and his field-weary limbs were forced to seek repose in strange, unfitting chairs that refused to yield to his contour. But the thing that nearly killed Gloria was that her parents could not or would not remember not to call her Gladys.

"Seems like you been Gladys so long I can't get accustomed to nothing else," Mrs. Briscoe would apologize, mopping her flushed face on her apron. Gloria sighed in despair. It was hopeless. Maybe she had better wear Jack not to come, make up some excuse and keep him away somehow. After they were married—if they ever did marry—he could adjust himself to the crudeness of his parents-in-law as best he could. Anyway, once married he couldn't get away so easily, but now—why, they weren't even engaged. It would be too great a risk to have him see them now. Yet, somehow because she loved him so much she could not bring herself to forego the pleasure of seeing him.

So he arrived as they had planned on the 6:30 Saturday afternoon, bringing with him a huge box of candy and greeting Gloria with a smile that made her heart jump for joy. Together they walked the short distance from the station to the inviting old country home in the cool quiet of a perfect summer evening. As they approached he stopped and faced the girl.

"Gloria, I don't know—how to do the square thing," he said hesitatingly. "I like you just a lot—in fact I—I love you, but I'm never going to ask you to marry me. I know we couldn't be happy together. My folks are just plain country people and you'd be ashamed of 'em and I wouldn't stand for that a minute. You're so different. I had no business letting myself fall for you. Up to the last minute I fought for the courage to call this visit off, but I wanted to come so badly I couldn't." Suddenly he raised his head as if a load had dropped from his shoulders. "I feel better now—we understand," he said after a moment.

Then Gloria put a hand on his arm and swallowed her pride as she spoke. "Jack, I'm only veneer. It isn't on very thick at that. It wouldn't be hard to scrape off. You'll feel better yet when you see dad in his old blue shirt with his suspenders holding him together, as he puts it. So we've both got parents that aren't too stylish."

Then Jack did something that quite shocked the neighbors who were all discreetly peeping out their windows to see Gladys' new city beau. He swept her slender little figure into his arms and kissed the boyish bob, and the pearl earrings, even the carmine lips. Yes, he did, right then and there.

"But I'm a hateful little mix, Jack. It was I who was—s-s-e afraid of what you'd think of my parents and that I forgot my loyalty to them and was almost ashamed to have you see them. And they're so fine, too. I ought to be killed."

But Jack did not agree with her. He only thought that she was even lovelier than ever when in a penitent mood—one in which he had never seen her before.
